Graduates

Graduating Class

Congratulations! After twelve years of waiting and wishing, the big day is here at last!

Our association with you has been brief but pleasant. We cannot reminisce with you. But we can make a wish for your future. We hope you will live with an open mind and a cheerful heart. May you always walk with your head held high and your eyes looking forward. May you give all of yourself in whatever you do, "by what measure you give, so shall you receive."

Alma Mater

As Freshmen here we entered
These halls not yet grown old
And all our hopes here centered,
To the colors Blue and Gold.
In the years that are before us,
May we keep our standard high
While the others pushing onward
Raise the banner to the skies.

As the curtain starts its falling,
And we leave the stage of life,
May we glance back o'er the years,
Through the days of grief and strife,

To the days when we were happy
and our joys were manifold,
As we helped maintain the honor
Of our banner Blue and Gold.

Class History

In room 18 on September, 1961 the 31 members of the class of 1965 started its eventful high school days with Mr. Thomas and Miss Stegner as our advisors.

At our first meeting we elected our class officers who were: President, Jim Kraus; Vice President, Sue Bunnell; Secretary, Brigitte Strini; Treasurer, Bonnie Dexter; and Student Council Representative, Don Vannatta.

For our one maney-raising activity, our class held a ham dinner.

As our first year ended we lost three members of our class, Brigitte Strini, who moved to Austria, Chris Dailey, and Mary Ann Nober.

The following September of our Sophomore year we welcomed two new members into our class, Ron Ness and David Harting.

This year's officers were: President, Sue Keesler; Vice President, Sue Bunnell; Secretary, Janine Stafford; Treasurer, Sue Rackley; and Student Council Representative, Kathy Hensz.

We are allowed two fund raising activities in our Sophomore year. Our class put on our first dance-"Autumn Leaves" which was very sucessful. The setting was very appropriate because the dance was held in the fall of 1962. During the intermission we presented two skits, one satirizing the average day in the President's life, the other, an Old West comedy.

We decided to put on a ham dinner, since the first one had been so profitable. Again it was a success.

Our Junior year began in September of 1963 with 29 members. Walter Kellam who had been with us in eighth grade, rejoined us and Wayne Reynolds arrived at mid-semester from Callicoon. We regretted Mr. Thomas was no longer our class advisor, but we welcomed Mr. Ludwick as our new one.

Our first order of business as Juniors was the election of class officers, which resulted as follows: President, Sue Keesler; Vice-President, Tom Barnes; Secretary, Carol Cassol; Treasurer, Sue Rackley; and Student Council Representative, Don Vannatta.

Our first activity, a Roast Beef dinner, was another success.

In September we ordered our class rings and before Thanksgiving we were proudly wearing them.

Soon afterwards we were painting the scenery and learning our parts for our play, a comedy "A Diet of Dates." We frightened many Narrowsburg car owners with our windshield advertisements the size of traffic tickets. Our play was attended by a record-breaking audience.

Seven members of the class made the National Honor Society: Jenny Baim, Tom LeStrange, Carol Cassol, Mary Keenan, Sally Hawker, Sue Keealer, and Bonnie Dexter.

The last activity of that year was the Junior Prom, "Moonlight and Roses." It was decorated by thousands of hand-made lowers. That night Mary Ann Muczyn and Peter Stetka were crowned King and Queen. A wishing-well graced the center of the floor, and couples danced to the music of Norm Loeffel.

History . . .

The next year 29 students started their long-awaited Senior year. We greeted our new advisor Mrs. Henke, who took over Miss Stegner's place. Our officers' were: President, Dan Johnson; Vice-President, Ron Ness; Secretary, Carol Cassol; Treasurer, Bonnie Dexter and Student Council Representative, Sally Hawker.

Because of a shortage of funds for our Washington trip, we put on a ham supper.

On October 14, with much preparation and expectation, we started at 5:30 on our Washington trip. We will always remember those four fun-filled days, each one which we greeted at 6:30 in the morning and ended, completely exhausted, after sight-seeing all over Washington D.C.

As soon as we returned we started working on our year-book which has been our main concern throughout this Senior year. We would have had much trouble if it were not for the cooperation of the faculty and the guidance of our yearbook advisor, Mr. Burke.

We have one activity left to complete and that is, of course, Graduation. We want to thank the faculty and Mr. Sullivan for their patience and especially Mr. Thomas, Mr. Ludwick, Mrs. Ludwick, Miss Stegner, and Mrs. Henke.

Class Trip

The Washington Trip.

The big day had finally arrived. At five A.M., October 14, twenty nine happy but still sleepy seniors gathered in front of the school, soon to depart for Washington D.C.

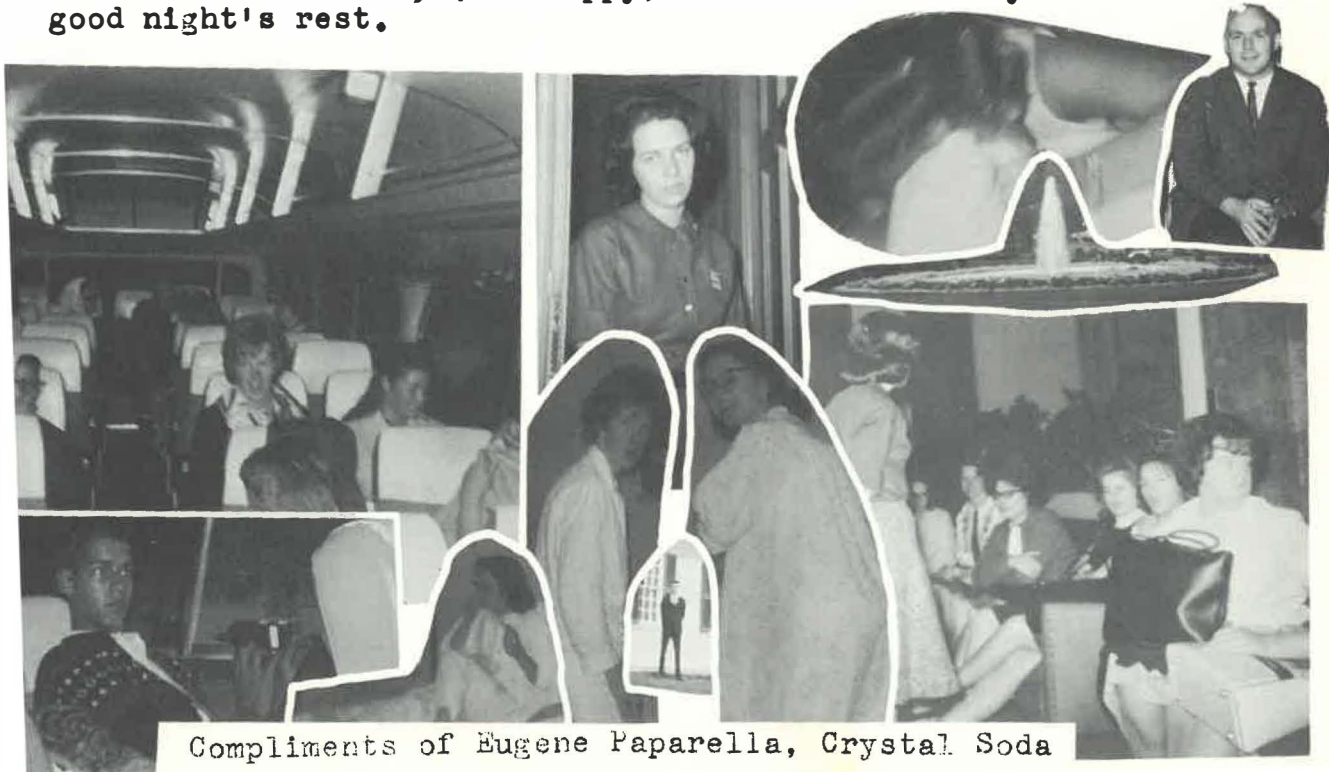

The baggage was all checked and everyone loaded into the bus. Our first stop was in Scranton to eat breakfast and meet Dave our guide, and the second at Philadelphia to tour Independence hall and get lunch. Then it was back on the bus until we reached Annapolis. There we went through the museum and saw a dress parade.

We arrived in Washington about five, ate supper, and then were off for the night's activities. Bright and early (6 A.M.) the next morning we received a cheery phone call from the desk to get us up. The tours that day included the Washington Monument, the Capitol, the Jefferson Memorial, the F.B.I. Building and the White House. That night during our free time some of us managed to see some parts of Washington that weren't included in the tours!

Friday was a day to end all days. We started touring at 7:45 in the morning and finished at 10:30 that night. Some of the points of interest included Arlington Cemetery, Smithsonian Institute and the Wax Museum.

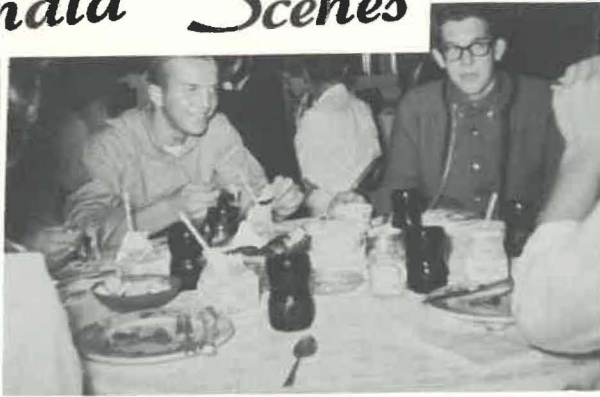

Time flew, and Saturday was the day to pack our things and leave for home. Shortly after noon we were all on the bus ready for our rainy trip home through Gettysburg.

At 10:30 the bus pulled up in front of the school and the tired and broke, (but happy) seniors were ready for a good night's rest.

Prophecy

- Kenny Baim- Word is in that Kenny has become the World Champion Weight-lifter.
- Tom Barnes- We hear that Tom has just been appointed coach at Narrowsburg.
- Rus Barnes- Rus, according to the Soviet News agency Tass, has just become Attorney General. Whats the world coming to?
- Sue Bunnell- After 42 years at the University of Fredonia, Susan has finally managed to become fourth grade teacher at N.H.S. Congradulations Sue!
- Ron Canfield- We have just received a Bulletin that Ron has just hijacked the U.S.S. Enterprise and is headed for Cuba. What's up, Ron?
- Carol Cassol- The F.B.I. has it that Carol and her gang have been caught breaking into Fort Knox. Another Goldfinger?
- Bonnie Dexter- Bonnie has just been admitted to Clark Summit, since farm life has proved too much for her.
- Carol Drollinger- Carol is modeling spring millinery at Saks Fifth Avenue.
- Pat Engelmann- After 4 years of sweat and toil, Pat has finally become secretary of Engelmann's garage.
- Terry Foster- Terry Foster, now a prominent mathematician, has after 76 years of research, proved that E does not equal MC^2 . Dang it!
- Dave Harting- After 20 years of extensive police training Dave was apprehended for assault and robbery.
- Sally Hawker- Sally has just been suspended from nurse training for putting sleeping pills in the head nurse's coffee.

Kathy Hensz- We have a report from the commission of the N.F.L. that Kathy Hensz has just been drafted by the Steelers as a linebacker. Better luck next time, J. Edgar!

Dan Johnson- After 31 years of sweat, toil, and numerous lawsuits, Dan has finally managed to become coach of Jeff.

Mary Keenan- After 18 years in the wrong school, Mary Keenan, who wanted to become a nurse, has just become a brain surgeon.

Sue Keesler- Sue has spent the last fourteen years in the Peace Corps teaching vocabulary words to the natives.

Walt Kellam- Walter has been signed to give a one man demonstration on how to build muscles the easy way, at the 1968 World's Fair.

Ed Kraack- Newsflash: Ed Kraack, in his high powered 12 cylinder O.H.C..Ferrari Bugatti with single cylinder Blanche carbs and Norton 15 speed transmission, has failed to qualify.

Elaine Kraack- Elaine has just initiated a new hairstyle for girls called, "The Yul Brynner."

Jim Kraus- After 26 years of plotting, spying, and calculating, Jim finally got back at Ralph Huebner, by making a citizen's arrest.

Tom LeStrange- Tom, editor of "Mad Magazine", has just sent a 10 year subscription to the school.

Lynn McNamee- Lynn is now living happily at Aleatraz after directing a top secret C.I.A. call to Russian Premier Kosygin.

Joan Nearing- Joan, now happily married to her Marine husband, Warren, is the only woman living on a base in Iceland with 2000 Marines.

Ron Ness- Ron, after 3 years in the F.B.I., was finally apprehended for Indian-napping. Take it light, J. Edgar!

Bob Orsini-

Word is in from Boeing Aircraft Company, that Bob, while test flying their new 30,000 M.P.H. plane, has disappeared into the vastness of space. See you around, Bobs!

Cathy Piscopo-

After 10 years, Cathy has been suspended by the Nurses Association for chasing the male patients with a hypo.

Susan Rackley-

Susan has just announced the publication of her new book, "I Am Always Right." How can you go wrong?

Wayne Reynolds-

Word has been received from the N.Y.S. Police that one of their troopers, (Wayne), has been suspended from the force. Seems as though he was giving tickets to only those cars which don't have Goldwater stickers.

Don Vannatta-

It seems Don, on his way to join the Boston Celtics, somehow got trapped on the M.T.A.
