CHIEFTAIN

R E Schenck

As freshmen here we entered,
these halls not yet grown old;
with all our hopes here centered
to the colors Blue and Gold.
To the years that are before us,
May we keep the banner high for the others pushing forward raise the banner to the sky.

As the curtain starts its falling and we leave the stage of life,
may we glance back o'er the years
to the days of grief and strife.
To the days when we were happy
and our joys were manifold;
may we help maintain the honor of our banner Blue and Gold.

DEDICATION

As we near the time for leaving Narrowsburg to start our lives, we think back to those years of learning we enjoyed here. And thinking of those days, we can't help thinking of the people who led us through them and through the days of dinners, dances, class trips, and Proms—our advisors!

We started out with Mr. White and Mrs. Stetka in our freshman year. They showed us the ropes and got us on the first step of the ladder.

For the next two years, our class meetings were graced with the presence of Miss Vollmers, and Mr. Bea. With them as our guides, we came along way.

In this, our last year, we have Mrs. Poley and another Mr. White. They were with us in Washington, and guided us throughout our last year.

It is to all our advisors that we dedicate this book. It is to them that we owe a debt of gratitude for their help and patience in our years here at NHS.

Thank You,

Mr. T. White

Miss Vollmers

Mrs. Stetka

Mrs. Poley

Mr. Bea

Mr. R. White

To The Class of 1971:

June, 1971, marks important milestones in your lives and mine. For you, it means Graduation and the continuation of your preparation for a career or start of your career. For me it means retirement after thirty-five years at Narrowsburg Central. For both of us, it ends a period of associations with students and adults of the Narrowsburg School District.

Certainly for both of us, there are memories of many pleasant, enjoyable or rewarding events and activities. Each of us have also had our low moments and disappointments.

For myself, I feel rewarded to have spent so many years with so many fine students, parents, and friends in Narrowsburg. I will remember you as my last class and follow your lives and careers as the time passes. May all of you have all the success possible and may you have pleasant memories of your years in the Narrowsburg Central School.

Sincerely,

Roy J. Sullivan
