Memories . . . light the corners of my mind,
Misty watercolor memories — of the Way We Were.

Scattered pictures . . .
of the smiles we've left behind,
smiles we shared with one another for The Way We Were.

Could it be that it was so simple, then?

AN ART CRAFT PLAY

Taming The Brat

A COMEDY IN THREE ACTS

EARL LOUIS RUSSELL

Memories may be beautiful and yet,
what's too painful to remember,
we choose to forget.

Right on, Mr. McCammon.

The champ

The match

Hmmm!

I wonder what he said!

Literature???

Hi! I'm Daryl. Fly me!

So it's the good times
we will remember
whenever we remember . . .

I give up already!

Class sinners repent.

Candid camera strikes again.

Whose bright idea was this?!

The new challenge

We've got to stop meeting like this.

Is this our hotel?!

I think I'm gonna be sick.

The food was . . . too much.

So where's your bellhop?

Church #4; a subtle hint.

Tony the Tiger?

What kind of conspiracy?!

The Way We Were . . .

Can you come out and play?

They might let us out for Xmas.

Mr. V. making his move.

Joe Cool

So this is what a waterbed is like!

Heard any good gossip lately?

Big Brother sees all.

Man overboard!

the way we were.

To our graduates —

You now leave the secure and disciplined existence of school life. The yesteryears are now memories — sweet or sour. The new form of existence leaves you to the freedom of your own recognizance — to develop your potentials or regress to your past laurels.

You will now have to demonstrate your convictions in an aurora of new found freedom — which you chronically expressed the desire to have. You are now challenged to use this freedom in a self-autonomous fashion with care that it doesn't revert into adolescent license and misguided defiance in the name of righteous conviction.

However, you must always have the courage to act alone when necessary and develop the foresight to commit yourself to the unified good when right reason demands it regardless of personal consequences. This is a difficult challenge — to separate and balance your views in proper perspective so that your freedom as well as others is not violated.

You will singularly distinguish yourself when your individual freedom identifies itself in performance to ideas, ideals and promises that stamp a profound seal on the guardian of all individual rights and freedoms.

I am convinced you will offer much to the marvelous experiment of democracy through an alive, significant and accountable performance.

Finally, may your American appetite for learning and feeling for Democracy never be satisfied.

Good Luck from Jack and Ida Berger

Elizabeth: I will to Carol and Mary Jane my great spelling ability. To Jim K., I will my ability to totally confuse Sue — so that he can keep her in line. And to Gary and Berp, I will my ability to make snap decisions.

Paul: I will my long legs to Mike, my massive height to Don, my forehead to Alex, my ability to take busting to Rick and my mustache to Holbie because he wants one so bad, and all my girlfriends to Lou.

Sheila: I will to my brother Ralph, Tom Schilling to bug him in all his study halls, hope you can put up with him! Best of luck to everyone!

Ron: I will my batting average to Dave DeMauro (.084), my soccer ability to the entire girls team; last and certainly the least, I will my Spanish average to anybody who wants to walk a tight rope for three years.

Carol: I will to Howard and Steve Meyer my Physics class, since they seem to like it so much. To Russ I will my shoes and to Tony, my P.R. socks. And last, I will to Mrs. Sutliff my ability to create chaos by walking into the room.

Gary: I will to Bill Virrill my ability to recognize scales in band, to Tim Kelly my photographic ability, and to Glenn Swendson my permission to beat Danny Lake up on the bus.

Marie: I will to Linda H. lots of luck so she can take another year of art without cracking up. And to anyone, the ability to get a late pass from Mrs. Knapp without getting the hassle of your life.

Keith: I will my ability of getting out of school to anyone who thinks they can handle it. I will my driving ability to Fred and Lynn. And I will my rebounding ability to Dave D.

Kathy: I will my driving ability to Coach Elco's new class — along with an economy size of Alka-Seltzer. To Georgie and Jeff, I will my ability to get other girls to go "parking" with them.

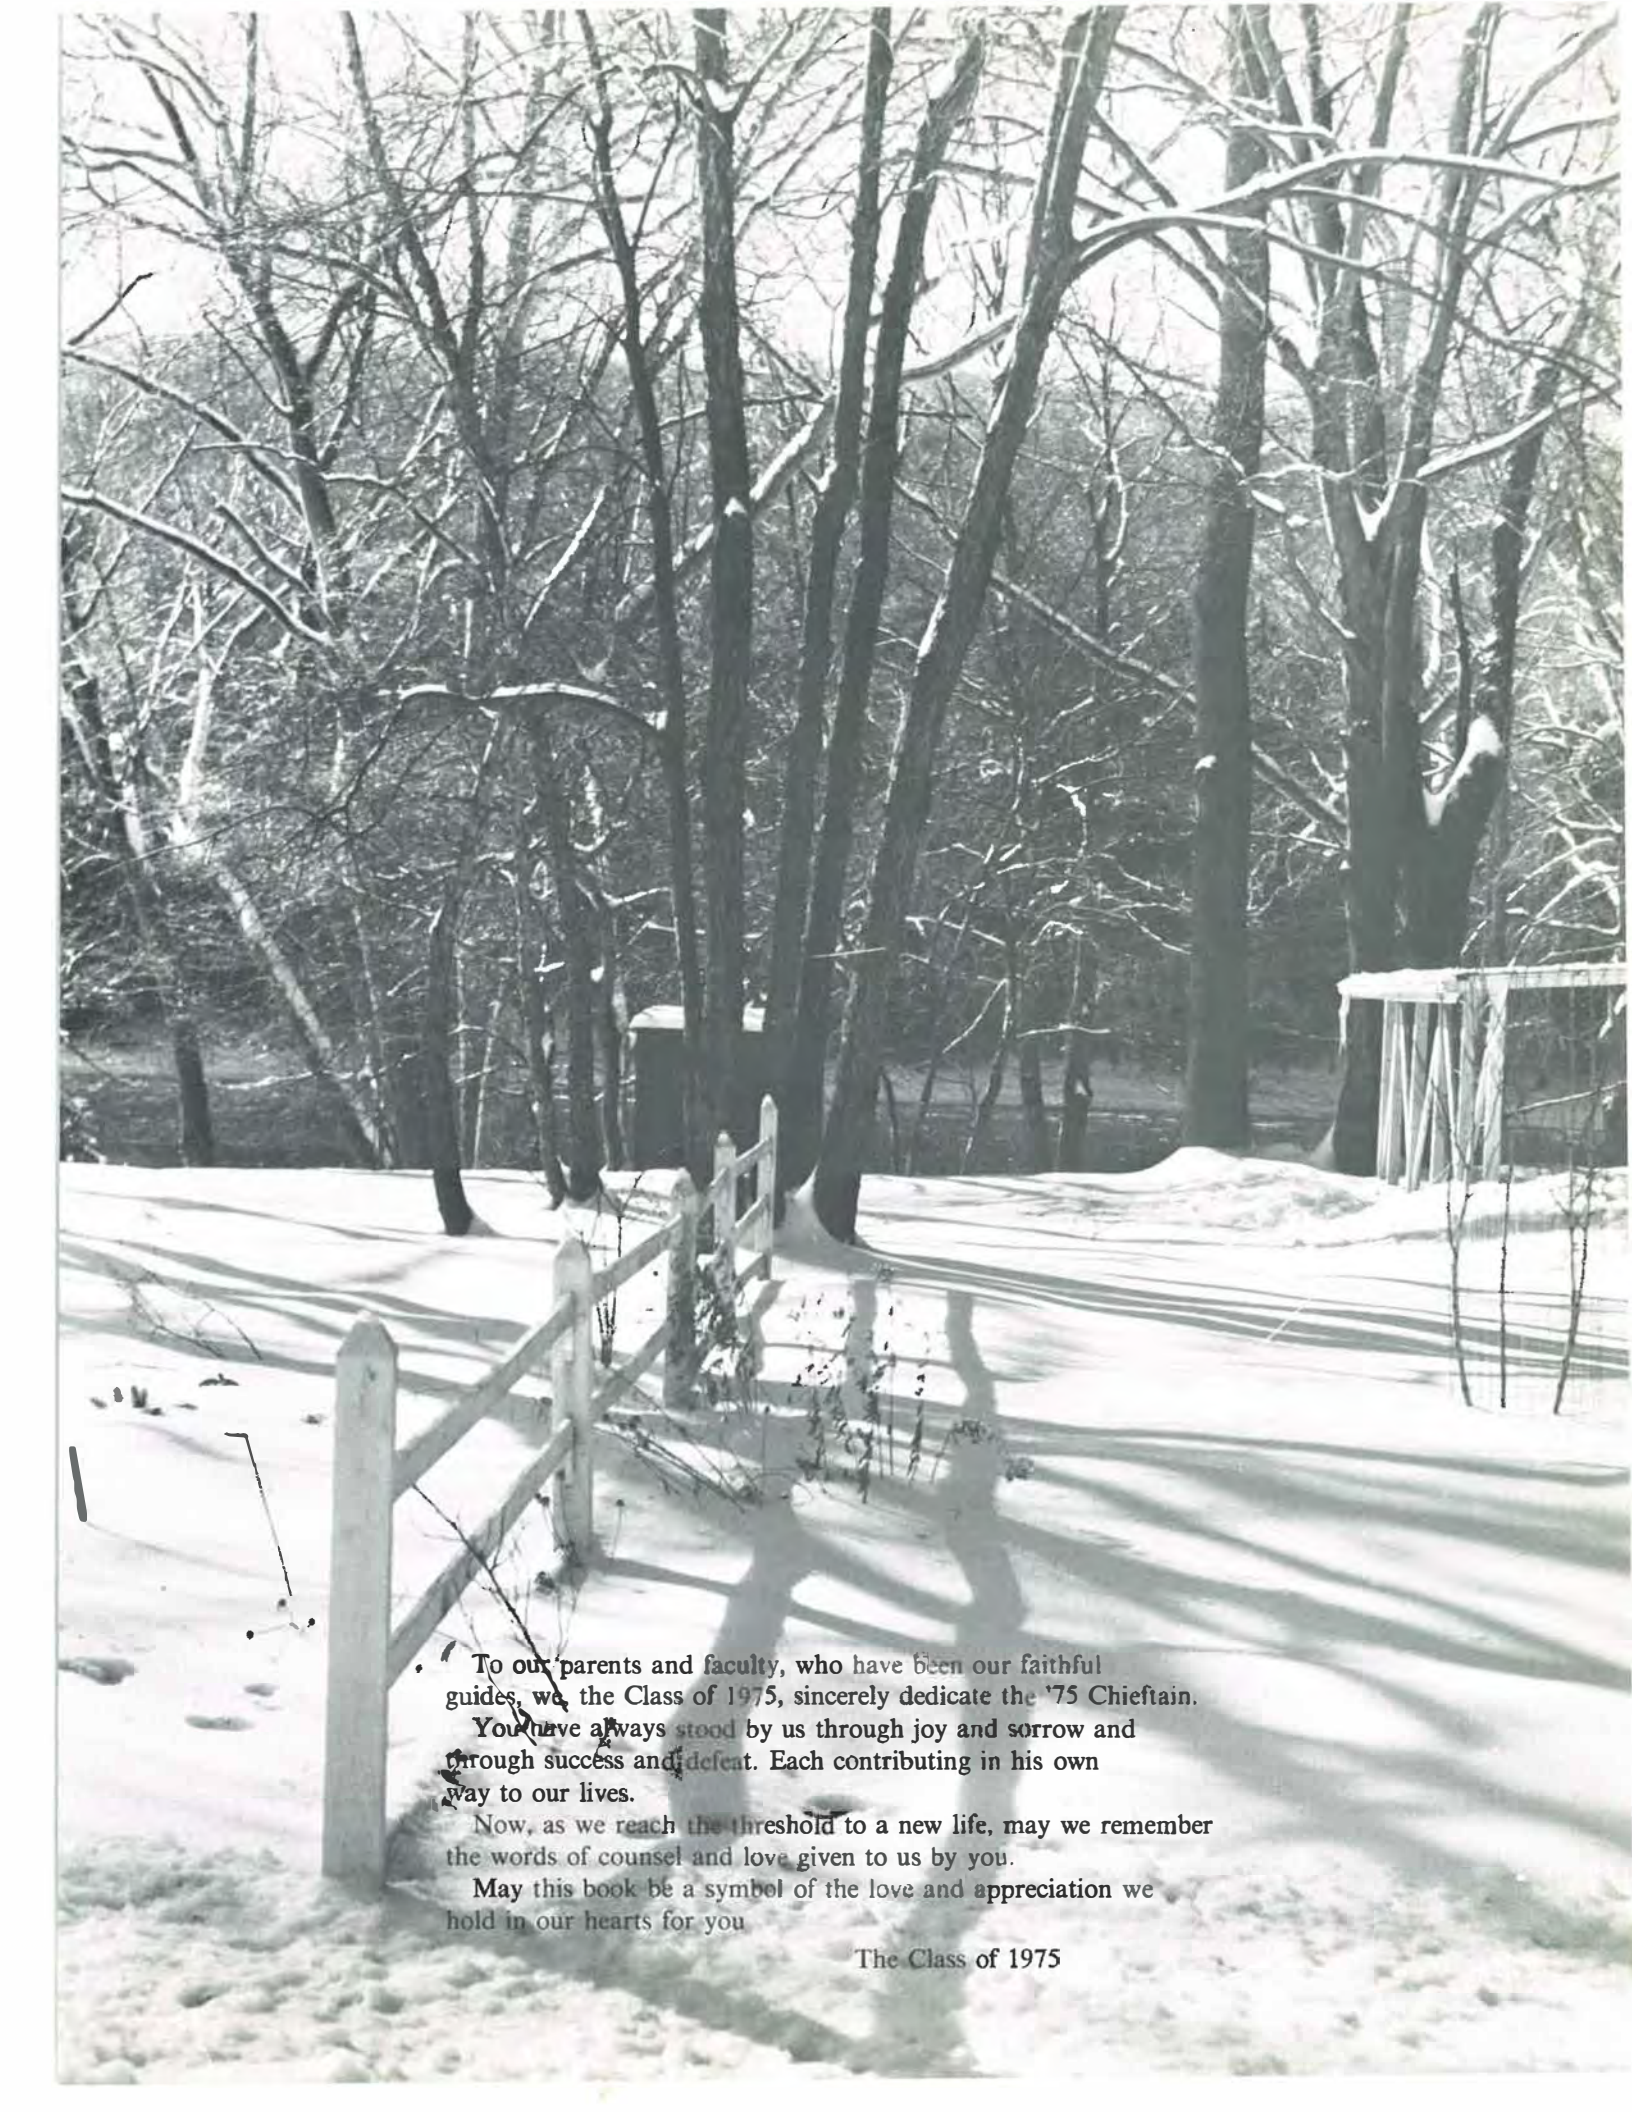

Mike: I will my ability to be friends with Mrs. Sutliff and all my experiences in NHS to anyone who could handle it in the manner I would.

All to myself
I think of you,

Think of the things
we used to do,

To our parents and faculty, who have been our faithful guides, we, the Class of 1975, sincerely dedicate the '75 Chieftain.

You have always stood by us through joy and sorrow and through success and defeat. Each contributing in his own way to our lives.

Now, as we reach the threshold to a new life, may we remember the words of counsel and love given to us by you.

May this book be a symbol of the love and appreciation we hold in our hearts for you

The Class of 1975

Donna: I will my ability to talk right to Sue L. To my sister my ability to stay with one guy for more than one week.

John: I will my not so great ability in Math to my brother Bob because he doesn't need it.

Cathy: I will all my good times in NHS and all my brains to my sister Susan. I also will my seat on the B.O.C.E.S. bus to anyone who can handle Harold and the rowdy Eldred kids.

JoAnn: I will my partying ability to Clayton and Liza I. And I will my great athletic talent to Cindy Treverton, I know she would appreciate it.

Denise: I will my ability to cause trouble on Bus 19 to the remaining members. To Kathy Pierce I will my ability for her to understand MY sign language, and not HERS. To Daryl, I will my ability to shave him without cutting him!

Teresa: I will my great driving ability to my cousin Joan, and my parking place to Jennifer. I also will my habits(?) to Mona and my ability to get out of school after two classes to any Junior who wants it.

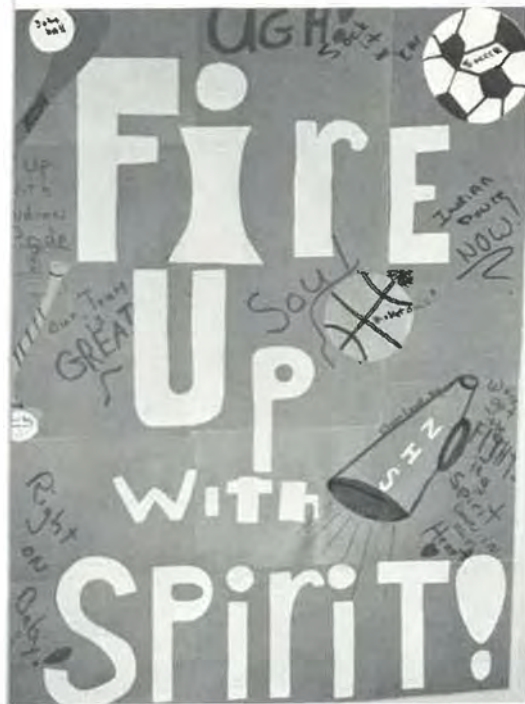

Mona: I will My everlasting love for Clint Eastwood to my friend Teresa K. My towering height to all my less fortunate friends. My horsemanship to anyone who doesn't already have it, and my Grand Funk record collection to Denise.

Mary Jane: I will my Home Ec. ability to Sam and my ability to have a good time at noon hour to Fred whom I'm sure will put it to good use. I will my study hall to anyone who can put up with Ralph and Tom and to Gary I will my business ability.

Karen R.: I will my position in soccer, as goalie, to anyone crazy enough to take it. To Brenda Orr I will the ability to pick on whoever she wants. And to Gloria and Pam I will the ability to make it through the rest of their years at NHS.

Sue: I will to Donna Kuen my ability to warrsh her clothes by the crick, have them come out oranch and yeah-so-big! Good Luck to all.

Karen Carlsen: I will my tardiness to my sister, Kim, so Mrs. Knapp will be kept busy, my car to Coach because he loves the sound of it, and 2 inches of my height to Nancy Kelly.

We are No. 1

Think of the things we used to say,

Think of each happy, bygone day;

Sometimes I sigh and sometimes I smile,
But I remember each olden, golden while.
