It must not be assumed that your formal education has developed your entire individuality, nor was it its responsibility.

You need to continue growing as individuals and do some serious thinking. People of many generations have often possessed the credentials necessary for a position, but lack imagination and failed to use hard work to progress. Many were unable to solve the problems of society because they had been 'simply educated'. False solutions were applied because people possessed false qualifications.

Failure to become truly learned and aware will continue to cause strife and confusion. Hopefully, each of you in building your lives will honestly learn rather than simply expose yourselves to education.

Life will be what you make it. Do not underestimate yourself. Know your limitations, and build upon them with preparation. What you should have learned from your education is that it does not give you the answers, it teaches you how to find the answers, which is the practical wisdom needed to cope with life as it is.

Best wishes for a bright and secure future.

GRADE SCHOOL TEACHERS

Our Grade School Teachers were the best.
 They never took a rest.
 They taught us 'till we were old.
 So we were told.
 They taught us right from wrong.
 They filled our vocabulary ever so long.
 They taught us with all their might,
 and always broke up a "great" fight.
 They taught us how to write,
 and gave us insight.
 But through all the pain, they gave us
 an EDUCATED brain!

TIMES OF YOUR LIFE

Good morning yesterday,
You wake up and time has slipped away
And suddenly it's hard to find,
The memories you left behind
Remember, do you remember?

The laughter and the tears
The shadows of misty yesteryears
The good times and the bad you've seen
And all the others inbetween
Remember, do you remember the Times of Your Life?

Each path was a joy and a sorrow
Put them away in your mind
The memories of time that you borrow
To spend when you get to tomorrow.

Here comes the setting sun
The seasons are passing one by one
So gather moments while you may
Collect the dreams you dream today
Remember, Will you remember the Times of Your Life?

Gather moments while you may
Collect the dreams you dream today
Remember, Will you remember the Times of Your Life?
Of Your Life, Of Your Life.

Memories

Memories are made of things
that happen every day;
Moments as we live them
things we do and say.

Little bits and pieces
of laughter mixed with tears;
Paragraphs and papers
written through the years.

The friendships we remember,
mistakes that we regret,
The ending of a love affair
we never could forget.

Yes, memories are happening
each one a different kind.
Each one a separate chapter
that's printed in the mind.

We can't erase the sadness
or blot out all the tears.
We can't undo the wrong we've done
and can't relive the years.

Since memories keep building
each day can be a start of making new and happy ones to store within our hearts.

The class of 1979 has gone through many drastic changes in the last four years. Watching them grow up has been quite an experience. The interest and vitality of these young people is never-ending. If this drive continues and grows, the class of 1979 will have a great deal to look forward to in the future. I wish each and everyone of them the best they are capable of achieving.

Mrs. Bliss

As you members of the class of 1979 go forth to take your places in the world, I expect to hear always that each one of you is living up to the ideals of Narrowsburg Central School. These ideals should provide the inspiration to overcome all obstacles, no matter how great, that may be in your path. With these ideals as a guide, as you apply your intelligence, imagination and initiative, you will reach your full potential. Thoreau promises "to him whose elastic and vigorous thoughts keep pace with the sun, the day is a perpetual morning".
Congratulations to you all, good luck and God Bless.

Ann Ferber and Mrs. Hollis

"I'm going to kill him!"

"The name is Jones. and I'm looking for my baby."

"I'm sorry, Patsie-I-I can't marry you."

"Wish he'd hurry."

"Has anybody read, HOW TO WIN FRIENDS AND INFLUENCE PEOPLE?"

Barry Hollis, at Twenty-one, has just graduated from Princeton, thereby coming into the fortune left him in his late father's will. His youthful escapades have won him a reputation as a playboy, but he is resolved to settle down now and become a worthy member of the community. On the train back from Princeton he meets and falls immediately in love with Gladys Vance. He persuades his aunt, with whom he makes his home, to send Gladys a note inviting her for a visit. Another note goes to Patsie Linden, a hard-boiled little dancer and old flame of Barry's asking her to send back his frat pin. Alas, the notes get mixed! Patsie arrives with her mother, an ex-burlesque queen, and threatens a breach of promise suit unless Barry marries her immediately. Barry has a bright idea: He couldn't possible marry Patsie if he had a wife and family already. So he gets Ann Furber, the butler's daughter, to pretend to be his wife-and the butler's more convincing, he "borrows" a strange baby. Into this situation marches Gladys, the light of his life, and Barry's in an awful pickle! He's got to convince Patsie he is married and Gladys he isn't married at the same time. The climax comes when Barry is arrested for kidnapping the baby. Then, to top this, he is informed that his estate has dwindled to almost nothing, and all his girlfriends desert him- that is, all except one.

"Don't wake me! I think I'm dreaming that I've really won all of these."
