ANNIE GET YOUR GUN

"Introducing . . . Buffalo Bill!"

Producer and Director - Mrs.

In November, the Music Department presented two outstanding performances of Irving Berlin's Broadway Musical, "Annie Get Your Gun". The crowds and ensembles were made up of the Junior and Senior Choruses, while the orchestral accompaniment was performed by the Senior Band and Mrs. Cindy Barnes at the piano.

The main characters, Annie Oakley and Frank Butler, were superbly portrayed by Jan Brock and Randy Hennig. Their supporting cast included: John Fischer (Charlie Davenport), Patricia Gilbert and Laura Lyons (Dolly Tate), Peter Toscano (Buffalo Bill), Daniel Beck (Chief Sitting Bull), Richard Lehr (Mr. Schuyler Adams and Foster Wilson), and many others. All did a wonderful job, astonishing the audience with their previously unknown talents.

We struggled through the try-outs and practices with tremendous support and encouragement from Mrs. Krause, our director and producer, and Mrs. Elaine Giguere, our choreographer. Without their help the production would not have achieved the professional quality that it did.

The cast and crew are deeply indebted to all those who put so much time and effort into making the production a success.

VARSITY

The Narrowsburg Girls' Basketball Team emerged as one of the power-houses of the WSL in 1980-81, winning their first four games, before dropping a contest to arch-rival Eldred. Patty Gilbert provided scoring and rebounding punch from the center position, ranking among the league leaders. Her sister, Diane, only a sophomore, contributed strong defense, and is developing into a potent scorer. Stacie Scheuren's ball-handling and passing helped others put points up on the board, while her driving lay-ups kept the opposition off balance. Charlotte Francis' hustle and take-charge attitude also sparked the team, while Darlene Rembish, a tiger on defense, made life miserable for her opponents. Felicia McIntosh dominated play under the boards, rebounding and stuffing shot attempts. Maureen Cosgrove, a key member of the supporting cast, showed her incredible corner shot when needed most. Denise Lorper provided crowd-pleasing relief at defensive tackle, while Julieta provided a Latin flair to the team during her brief tenure.

The Girls' J.V. team has had an up-and-down season, but showed promise. Kathleen "Kee" Hankins returned to dazzle both as a ball handler and scorer. Cathy Barnes used her height to gracefully out leap most other girls in the league. Sharing backcourt duties with "Kee", Michelle "Neigs" Neiger burned the cords with her long outside shots. Cindy "Mouse" Kraus battled under the boards as long as her gimpy knees permitted. Freshman Marie Kelly proved to be a real daredevil, dribbling around, through, and under the opposition. Kim Nelson glided down the court like quicksilver. Allison Larkin used her quickness and dexterity to help bring the ball up the court, while first-year player Patti Strumpfler proved herself with able relief from the bench. Also helping out were Susan Knapp, a tough defensive forward, and Diane Foster, who filled in at both guard and forward. Freshman Laurie Meckle rounded out the squad doing everything but taking tickets and selling popcorn.

The 1980 Boys Soccer team had a short four game season. They were victorious against Liberty and ended with a 1-2 record. Ken Huebner was the leading scorer for the team, followed by Sophomore, Robert Francis and Junior, Eric Hector.

This year's Girls Soccer team exhibited a fiercely competitive style. However, they ended the season with a disappointing 3 record. When asked to comment, coach Ron Scheuren said, "Our biggest weakness was the lack of consistent scoring punch, which we have had in the past years."

The leading scorers were All-Stars, Stacie Scheuren and Charlotte Francis, accompanied by Junior, Susan Rembish.

The departing seniors, leave behind a group of enthusiastic players, eager to strengthen their abilities in order to become next year's winners.

HALLOWEEN

On Friday, October 31, the halls of NCS were crawling with bugs, flying with witches and vampires, and alive with bums, angels, pajama clad beauties, and an assortment of uglies beyond the imagination. So, you might ask, what else is new at Narrowsburg? Well, this was not just another day - it marked Narrowsburg's first annual DRESS-UP DAY! The seventh graders won the day's competition, topping even the gruesome seniors who featured Ken Huebner in drag. Let's hope dress-up day becomes an annual tradition. Howard Deighton's stirring pledge still echoes in the halls: "I SHALL RETURN!"

CLASS OF '81 WILL

We, the Class of '81, being of "sound(?)" minds and bodies will to Mr. and Mrs. Jaggie, Mr. and Mrs. Bea, and Mr. and Mrs. Feldhusen, what's left of the "Strohs" that we left in the bathroom tanks at Qua Inn.

To Jan and Reinhard, we will our ability to win the "Battle of the F.B.I." for the next time they visit Nation's Capitol.

To future Senior classes, we will our ability to cheer on Bus Driver "BOB'S" defensive driving while being chased at high speeds by a Yellow Mustang full of girl-chasing guys.

We will Julieta's ability to "chug" to anyone who thinks they can handle it.

To the Photo Club, we will the "revealing" negatives of our Class Trip.

We will the girls of N.H.S. the ability to do seven shots of "seven" (without the seven) and not break flames.

To Mrs. Krause, we will any Junior Class that thinks they can put on as great a Junior Play as we did. If you can't find one, just contact us at our Hollywood address.

We will "Fever's" ability to act Wild and Crazy in public places to whoever wants it.

To Anne, we will the ability to stay awake all night during a class party.

To Cindy, we will the privacy she always wanted but never received at Dina's parties.

The girls of the class will to Coach a double page spread of all of us in wet T-Shirts and a night out at the Drive-In—If he can handle it!

We will our ability to make money to the Junior Class, because they need it.

To Marty, Jim, and Frank, we leave Darlene's, Donna's, and Alice's cleaning abilities.

The Seniors in Mrs. Norden's classes will her: our ignorance, rudeness, bad manners and lack of innocence, Flipper, and four more children for show business.

Finally, we the Class of '81 leave many treasured memories of our years at N.H.S.

DAVID STUART

David was born a Sagittarius, on December 18, 1962. His best feature is his sense of humor. David's most embarrassing moment was when he got hit by a flying 2x4. Shooting his first deer is David's best moment to date. He likes hunting and motorcycle riding. Reading books and studying are two of David's dislikes. The thing he's most looking forward to is graduating from high school. Going on his Senior Class trip is one of David's better achievements.

JULIETA VAZQUEZ DEL MERCADO

Julieta was born on January 18, 1962 and is a Capricorn. Her best feature is her shiny, black hair. Julieta's most embarrassing moment was when she got sick on the class trip. Her best moment was when she arrived in Narrowsburg after a long trip from Mexico. Julieta likes motorcycles, horseback riding, dancing, basketball, snow, the class trip, and Narrowsburg. She dislikes pickles, crowds of people, and the cold weather. Julieta is most looking forward to becoming a lawyer and marrying John in fifty years. Receiving a math diploma, a basketball trophy, and having the highest average in 9th Grade are some of Julieta's special achievements.

JOHN M. STIRNA III

Born on May 24, 1963, John is a Gemini. His best feature is his "whole body". John's most embarrassing moment happened at Hankins' house while he was getting dressed. The wind blew the door open, and there he was! His best moment was receiving the Most Valuable Player award for basketball. John likes sports, medicine, Steve Martin, the country, and girls! He dislikes Math, peas, research writing, when kids fight, and when he can't find a pair of socks that match. John is looking forward to his entire future. John's special achievement is that he finally found his new house after being lost for an entire day!

LISA M. MECKLE

Born September 18, 1963, Lisa is a Virgo. Her best feature her sparkling, curly, red hair. Lisa's most embarrassing moment occurred on the class trip when John Barnes walked in to her hotel room while she was getting dressed. Her best moments were when she went to Europe with the United States Collegiate Wind Band. Lisa likes rollerskating, music, and swimming and dislikes people who won't take her for what she is. Lisa is most looking forward to graduation and joining the Army Band. Traveling in Europe with the United States Collegiate Wind Band and being a cheerleader for four years are Lisa's special achievements.

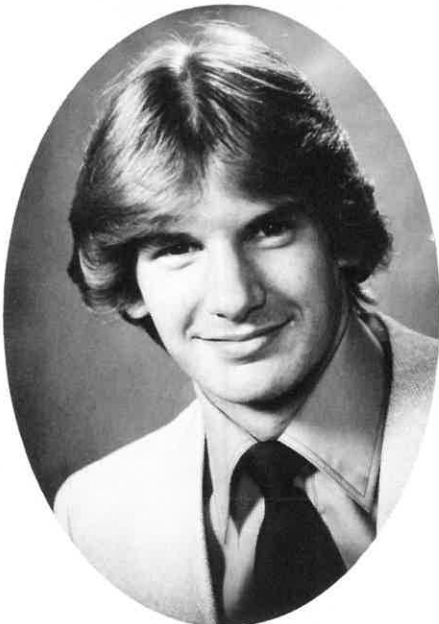

LORRAINE M. MILANI

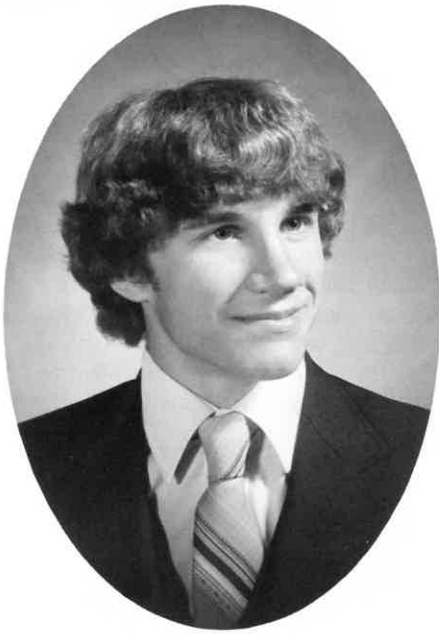

Lorraine Marie Milani was born on February 13, 1963 under the sign of the water-bearer, Aquarius. Lorraine's best features extend from her head to her toes. Her most embarrassing moment occurred a couple of years ago when she and a friend were in the girl's room and felt like getting rowdy. Banging on the walls seemed like fun at the time. Unfortunately, Mr. Schatz was writing his famous blackboard notes on the other side. Lorraine likes trying exotic foods, watching old movies, the ocean, sailing, and campfires. She likes being with people, but most of all she likes spending time alone. Lorraine dislikes stereotyped people, crowded places and cold weather. Lorraine's special achievements are surviving Mr. Bosch's art classes, listening to Country Joe and the Fish, living by her own schedule while in school, surviving the class trip, and making it through too many years at Narrowsburg!

LEONARD O'CONNELL

On January 22, 1963, a blonde-haired, chocolate-eyed boy came into this world as an Aquarian. Leonard's best feature is his professionally styled hair. His most embarrassing moment occurred on the class trip when a female walked into his hotel room when he had nothing on but the "bare necessities". Leonard's best moments have been with Lisa. He likes Lisa, his '72 Grand Torino Sport, airplanes, and hunting, in that order. Leonard dislikes senior year study halls because he has to sit through so many of them. The thing Leonard is most looking forward to is meeting up with gas station attendant (teacher?) John Schatz five years from now. His special achievement is surviving English 12.

KENNETH P. HUEBNER JR.

A Libra, Ken was born on October 12, 1963. Ken thinks that his body is his best feature. Ken has no "most embarrassing" moment, because he has no shame. Ken is still expecting his best moment to occur. He likes Anne, skiing, and hunting, but dislikes stewed carrots, his car, and negative attitudes. Ken's most looking forward to being successful in the business world. Becoming a member of the National Honor Society, and attending Narrowsburg School for 13 years and surviving are some of Ken's special achievements.

LEONA D. KRAUS

Leona was born on December 13, 1963 and is a Sagittarian. Her best features are her green eyes. Leona's most embarrassing moment occurred when she threw up in Mrs. Henke's music class. Being given a surprise birthday party by her sixth grade classmates was Leona's best moment. She likes parties, sports, and cooking, but dislikes homework, housework, and being called "Shorty". Leona is most looking forward to Graduation Day 1981. Getting an award for being the most improved ninth grader was Leona's special achievement.

JOANNE P. LATHER

Joanne was born on July 6, 1963 under the sign of Cancer. Her best feature is her nice smile. Joanne's most embarrassing moments occurred in Mr. Martin's math class because she never knew what he was talking about. Her best moment will occur when she turns eighteen. Joanne likes volleyball, Kenny, and Italian food. She dislikes spinach and Mr. N. Joanne is most looking forward to traveling with Kenny, graduating, and getting married in ten years. Joanne's special achievement is that she has improved her outlook on life.

CHARLOTTE FRANCIS

Born on January 25, 1963 under the sign of Aquarius, Charlotte believes her best feature to be her muscles, and she has plenty of them. Charlotte's best moments occurred when she was chosen Most Valuable Player in soccer and when she received a letter from citizens of the community, nominating her for "Miss Personality". Her most embarrassing moment occurred during the showing of certain incriminating pictures of her on the Senior Class trip. Charlotte likes to listen to disc music, rollerskate, go to movies, and to win. She dislikes cold beds, beer, people who play with her food, practical jokes, and losing! The thing she's most looking forward to is being a zoologist and being rich. Charlotte's special achievement is being an all-around athlete.

PATRICIA A. FUCHS

Born on October 5, 1963, Patty is a Libra. Her best features are her dimples, which you can't help but notice when she smiles. Her most embarrassing moment was going to her surprise 16th birthday party dressed "like a bum". She hadn't planned to go out that night. Her best moments occurred when she went to Great Adventure with a close friend, and when she got her first car. Patty likes being with Denise, Joanne, and her friends on the BOCES bus, partying with Joanne and Kenny, and being called "Patty Cakes". She dislikes school lunches, A.W., and stuck-up people. Patty is most looking forward to graduating from this school and being able to walk anyplace without having to see a "certain" teacher. She's hoping that her special achievements will be traveling, becoming an L.P.N., or entering the Army.

JEAN M. GARDE

Born on March 20, 1963, Jean is a Pisces. Her best characteristic is her sparkling personality. Her most embarrassing moment occurred when she was involved in an auto accident with Ranger Rick of the Park Service. Jean's best moments are when she's with her entire family. Jean likes the Shore, Al Pacino, summer afternoons, chocolate chip mint ice cream, Alan Alda, and English Sheepdogs. She dislikes hot dogs, icy roads, jacked up V.W.'s, and opera music. Jean is most looking forward to getting out of school and "starting" her life. Her special achievement is not totalling her Mom's car.

EILEEN A. BICKEL

Eileen was born on October 21, 1963, and is a Libra. Her most embarrassing moment happened when she failed tenth grade Social Studies. Eileen's best moment occurred when she broke up with her boyfriend! She likes ice cream, nice looking guys, and guys with hairy chests. She dislikes stuck up people, fat guys, and peanut butter. Eileen is most looking forward to Karen and Denise getting married. Making it to the twelfth grade has been Eileen's special achievement.

MAUREEN S. COSGROVE

Maureen was born on December 4, 1963, under the sign of Sagittarius. Her best features are her strong finger tips, which she uses to hit the ball over the volleyball net. Maureen's most embarrassing moment occurred on the Class Trip when she got caught in the hall without her bathrobe. She likes skiing, the "Sex Queens", going on class trips, and sports. She dislikes "the President", and two faced, snobby people. Maureen is most looking forward to graduating, going to college, and becoming a Certified Public Accountant. Maureen's special achievements are making a shirt in Home Ec and having the second highest batting average on the softball team.

DONNA D. DAILEY

Born on March 13, 1963, Donna is a Pisces. Donna's best feature is her L.A.! Her most embarrassing moment was when she ripped her pants in gym class. Donna's best moments occur when she plays pool with a special friend. Donna likes to rollerskate and listen to music, but dislikes the cold weather and Chinese food. Donna is most looking forward to going into the Army, traveling, and eventually becoming an accountant. One of Donna's special achievements was being a cheerleader for two years.

JAN A. BROCK-PRESIDENT

A Libra, Jan was born on October 15, 1963. Jan states that her best feature is her newly acquired figure. Jan's most embarrassing moment happened on the Senior Class trip. A certain fellow, whose name shall remain nameless, but whose initials are the same as her own, strolled into her room while she was dressing and she got the "bare facts". Jan likes horseback riding, playing the guitar, singing, cozy warm winter nights, and remembering her brother, Paul. She dislikes pushy people, mean dogs, dirty horses, eyebrows that grow together, and "short" jokes. Jan is most looking forward to traveling all over the world to many interesting and exotic places, and owning a Russian Wolfhound. Participating in a shooting competition at the 1980 Empire State Games and performing Handel's "Messiah" in the 1980 Hartwick Music Concert are Jan's special achievements to date.

PATRICIA E. GILBERT VICE PRESIDENT

A Sagittarian, Patty was born on December 4, 1963. Patty's best feature is her back; it's worth ten thousand dollars! Her most embarrassing moment was when she found out she couldn't take a shower for nine months because she'd be in a body cast. Getting out of her body cast was Patty's best moment. Patty likes sports, music, singing with Randy, the class trip, and Peter. She dislikes two-faced people, people with no sense of humor, wearing a body cast for nine months, and people with "attitudes" on the basketball court. Patty is most looking forward to going to college and succeeding in the Medical field. Patty's special achievements include receiving the Most Valuable Player award in basketball and softball, being Student Council Vice President, Junior Class President, Senior Class Vice President, and getting Cindy her one way ticket!

NARDINA L. TOSCANO SECRETARY/TREASURER

Nardina was born on April 2, 1963, and is an Aries. Her best feature is her mouth. Dina's most embarrassing moment occurred on the second night of the Junior Class Play when she forgot her lines and added "other" words. Her best moment was the day a special friend, who had been in the hospital for three months, showed signs of recognizing her. Dina likes Charlie, the "Sex Queens", animals, the class trip, skiing, sports, and "dangerous" adventures with Cindy. She dislikes two-faced people, snobs, show-offs, "tall" people, "short" jokes, and "pushy" boys. Dina is most looking forward to becoming 5'0" and attending college in hopes of becoming a Veterinarian. Receiving many awards and skiing down the Wildcat slope without killing herself are Nardina's special achievements.

THE YOUNG AND THE RESTLESS

On a cold, misty, Monday morning, October thirteenth to be exact, the Senior class received its orders. Seek out and destroy Washington, D.C.

When all the luggage was loaded and everyone had staked out their territory on the bus, bus-driver "BOB" pulled away from the curb. We were on our way! After passing around a liter of "Coke", and singing a few verses of "A Hundred Bottles of Beer", we flew into our first stop, Gettysburg. Here we ate a Howard Johnson's lunch, which can only be described as being fit for vermin.

At 1:30 we reached our first point of attack, the Smithsonian. On a five-story high screen in the Air and Space Museum, we saw the film, "To Fly". It took our breaths away, not to mention a few stomachs. Then we turned towards "home" for the next two nights, the Quality Inn in Arlington, Virginia.

That night we dined in elegance at Alfio's, overlooking the Potomac and Arlington Cemetery. After gorging ourselves on the fabulous fare, we made a brief pitstop at the hotel and headed out again. Our target this time? The Roller Disco.

We barely survived the roller disco and returned limping and sore. Tattered and torn, we felt the need to "quench our thirsts", an urge to which we succumbed.

The next morning we crawled out to the bus to go to breakfast, and for some reason many people could not consume it. After a rather dismal meal we headed to what has become our most famous and well-remembered battle, the Battle of F.B.I. (which a few of us lost). We also hit Emba Row, Engraving and Printing, and the National Zoo. It was debated whether our class should left on exhibit there.

We returned to the hotel with enough time a swim and a sauna before we dressed for dinner. After dinner at Hogate's, we continued on to the Kennedy Center where we saw Gilda Radner a Sam Waterson in Lunch Hour.

We spent another night partying, rolled out bed, bleary-eyed after an hour's sleep, a headed off to our final destinations, the White House and the Capitol. A few hours later we found ourselves on a bus headed home to "Big N".

We made a brief stop in the Dutch country where we found a candy-eating goat, and an you-can-eat spread of Amish delicacies, including home baked bread and Shoo-fly pie.

We had a quiet ride home, except for DJ JOHN'S DISCO BUS. We stumbled into Narrowsburg around 12:00 a.m. filled with fun memories and exhaustion.

We survived many things on the trip: inedible food, a Thom McCan convention, plugged toilets, shaving cream fights, seven in one bus and phone calls at 4:00 in the morning, but lived to tell the tale.

Our mission completed and Washington in ruins, we conclude this episode of "The Young and the Restless".

THIS IS OUR LIFE!

you are there . . . with the class of '81

It all began on a beautiful September day in 1968. On that day, the school, in its infinite wisdom, created the Class of 1981, after which they broke the mold. We survived the afternoon naps, the finger painting sessions, and the first bouts with that dreaded creature, "homework". But the toughest test was just beginning: we had yet to find out who would be able to survive the school's most extreme torture — LUNCH.

We watched both fellow students and teachers come and go: Kathy Badstein, Michael Cole, Charlie Hockenberry, Mrs. Henke, and "Dandy Andy" Anderson, just to mention a few. Our two most recent losses were: John "Fever" Stirna, who is a great guy and a good friend to us all, and Mr. John Schatz, who was our advisor for two years and put up with more than a doctor at Farview.

We immediately took Mr. Schatz under our wing, and there under the soft, downy feathers, kept a strangle hold on him. We went through a lot together: Schatzism, "King for a Day", and dirty jokes in eighth period homeroom. But Mr. Schatz took his leave before we could bring down on him our final reign of terror—The Class Trip! We wish "Big John" good luck; we know his life won't be the same without us. (We heard that sigh of relief!)

In the past year our class has grown closer, and like the Ewings of "Dallas", become one big family. Narrowsburg Central won't be the same when we're gone, but then neither will we. We will go our separate ways, each on a different road in life. Still, we will always be together in the memories that we share.

Congratulations to the 1981 Graduates—Delaware Medical Center—

"the inside story"

The super sophomores of 1980-1981 began with a slow start, but ended the year with a bang! We would like to thank our advisors, Mr. Walsh and Mrs. Krause, for all their help and support. There were many times when our class would have given up, but they inspired us to become the "Spirited Sophomores".

AWARDS ASSEMBLY

Last year's Awards Assembly took place in our "spacious" cafeteria on a sweltering June day.

It was an Awards Assembly unlike any other in the school's history. Enthusiasm streamed through the bodies of the audience like an electric current. The informality of the cafeteria setting made us all feel like one big family.

The major awards went to Gary Hankins and Betsy Lang for Boy and Girl of the Year. The music awards consisted of the John Philip Sousa Award which went to Patty Gilbert, and the Hall of Fame Music Award which went to both Lisa Meckle and Laura Feagles. Debbie Creamer and Betsy Lang were awarded the Statesman and Student Council Honor Awards. It was quite a day and the heat seemed to have no effect on the spirit of the students.

BASEBALL HIGHLIGHTS '80

The 1980 Boys Baseball season was filled with memorable moments. The team ended the season with a 3-9 record. This record signifies little when compared to the team's effort and achievement. The Indians came to life in their third game, when Mark Tyler hurled his best performance of the year. He pitched a three-hitter, struck out ten men, and walked only three in the only shutout of the year, a 2-0 triumph. Game 5 was also a season highlight. It was another fine pitching performance, this time by Mike Gilbert. He pitched a six-hitter propelling the team to a 4-3 victory. In game 6, Mark Tyler once again proved his pitching ability. The team supported him with an outstanding offensive effort by piling up ten runs. The Indian's fine defenses played 26 straight errorless innings. Although Senior Dan Cortese started slowly, he finished the season with the team's highest batting average.

THE PLOT

The plot revolves around a broken romance. Rita has just caught her steady, Fred, cheating on her. Fred tries everything in his power to win back his beloved Rita, but she won't even listen to his alibi about the blonde being his "cousin". After all, who has a blonde cousin? Keith is also trying to win his way into Rita's arms. That night Rita has a slumber party where both Fred and Keith work furiously to win her heart. To add to the chaos, a midnight prowler is in Rita's house. Of course Rita's parents are away so Country Cousin Vikki is the babysitter for the night. Girls get kidnapped, and things get stolen. Finally, after a night of fun and frolic, Fred recaptures Rita's heart.
