Diane G.- I will all my love and happiness to Tommy, and thanks for stepping back into my life. To my sister Andrea, my ability to play sports (without getting hurt). To my brother Chris, all the great times I had during my senior year. To Tina, my brother Mike; forever. To Mary F., my superb goalie talents. To my best friend Gail, a lifetime of friendship and lots of happiness. To Mrs. Bliss and Mr. Scheuren, all of my braces and splints, and most of all, my thanks for all their help in sports. To the Class of '83, all the luck and happiness always. Last, but not least, to my parents, all my love and thanks for everything.

Karen K.- I, Karen Kraus, will my love and the song "And Then She Kissed Me" by Kiss to Danny Mastrogiovanni Jr. To Susan L., my nickname Krazy. To Joe Powell, my ability to draw. And to my Class, I will a smile to brighten each day.

Lilia P.- To my class, love, happiness, and thanks for helping me this year. It was very hard for me and you all are great friends that never will be forgotten. I love you all and I will miss you very much when I go.

To Wallicia, my closest and dearest friend, I will, love, thanks for being a friend, and of course Tony D., Magic, Ralph and Wayne!! To my sweet cousins Lori and Stacey, I will Narrowsburg and the Martin's house. To Kim and Darren all the great times I had at N.H.S. To Herb, Rich L., Scott H. and John F., a bottle of Babe. To Jill, luck and a lifetime of happiness. To Diana, anything she wants. To Marie, a lie detector. To Kimmie W., my green turtleneck (for future use). To Mary F., "Italians". To my class, love, happiness, and success. I love you all and I'll miss you. And last, but not least, to my parents, love, and thanks for being there when I needed you.

Mary- I will to my Mom and Dad, luck, love, and happiness forever-they deserve it. To Rocky, the ability to survive the rest of his years at N.H.S. To Vin, the ability to control his temper. To "Critter", my S.L. List. To my best friend Diane D., I will all the luck and happiness she can find. Finally, I will to Danny all of my love as long as he accepts it and also all the happiness we find together.

Pete A.- To Mike H., I will my ability to graduate from Narrowsburg. (I guess he can have my car too) To John B., I will all my AC/ DCtapes. To the class of '83 I wish good luck, and to the class of '84, I also wish good luck.

Michelle N.- I will Clark all my love, happiness and my height because he needs it. I leave Cathy my ability to cut 5th periods and go to the Midtown. To Carl, I leave my ability to stay out of trouble. And to Gail, Diane and Judy, thanks for making English class interesting.

Ron- To my class, I will all the happiness in the world. To Sal, I will my ability to get girls. To Chris W., I will my car stereo. To Sal and Fischer, I will peace. To Gail, I will a new Dooby because Sal ran over the old one. To John Z., I will my ability to slow down and take my time, also, I leave my sister. To Mr. Wolfe, I leave my ability to stay cool and not yell so much. The same goes for Mrs. Norden.

Laura L.- To Allison, I will a seat at Hector's and all the great times we've had together. To Karen, I will my ability to say "yes" and to know what to do. To Andy, my job at the Century. To Snoopy and his friends, I leave the bench, and a blinking light. To my brothers and my parents, I will all the good times we've had and my love always.

Allison H.- To my best cuz Ka, I leave a box of pep pills to quicken her pace. To Laura, I leave my ability to be "bad" and still be known as "sweet and innocent". To Kee and Cindy, a "big green toy". To Bob F., Bob L., Lance, and Paul, I give 20 more years of partying. To Joe B., all my D.P. programs and to James, film of "us" to develop. To friends from the Class of '82, I give you nothing for leaving me here without you. To Al and Mark, much happiness together. To Mo, I give all my Seger albums and a lot of love and happiness. To everyone else in the Class of '83, especially Ka and Laura, I will much luck and happiness in the years to come. Finally, to Mom and Bobby, I give all my love and happiness and thanks for sharing special times with me.

Stefan- I will to Stanley and to Kim, my Strength so that they can beat me up. I will my ability of jumping in the snow after sauna bathing to Mike T. To Kelly, I will a quiet tone of voice, and to Kevin, I will my height. To both of my parents (both Swedish and American) I will all the love, luck and happiness in the future. I will my math skills to Anthony (he sure needs them). And finally to Karen H., I will the pleasure to be an exchange student.

What could turn this apparently normal high school student into a wild wench...

Mrs. Krause: Kee & C.K.- another set of drummers who can "fake" as well as we can. K.K.- a piano that can stay in tune from day to day.

Coach: K.H.- someone to do silly things like getting fingers stuck under doors. M.D.- a night out with the girls from the class of '83. J.Z.- all of my baseball socks which I forgot to hand in (God only knows why you would want them!)

J.B. & M.D.- a telescope so you can see everyone better. C.K.- remembrances of all our fun gym classes.

Mrs. Bliss: J.F.- thanks for all the times we've talked in study hall about whatever we happened to be talking about. H.M.- a new carrot patch. L.L.- my ability to keep the kindergarten's attention during gym.

Mr. McCammon: A.H.- thanks for all the good times we've shared through Blue & Gold.

Miss Burhmaster: J.Z.- a bottle of Joy dish washing soap because we used the other one in place of cooking oil (surprise !!) You can also have my grade. Kee- all the wild things we did during your "reign" as softball coach. C.B.- another softball player who knows the technique of sliding into first base.

Mr. Nonnemacher: A.H.- my ability to procrastinate. K.H.- someone who can change their future plans once a week like me.

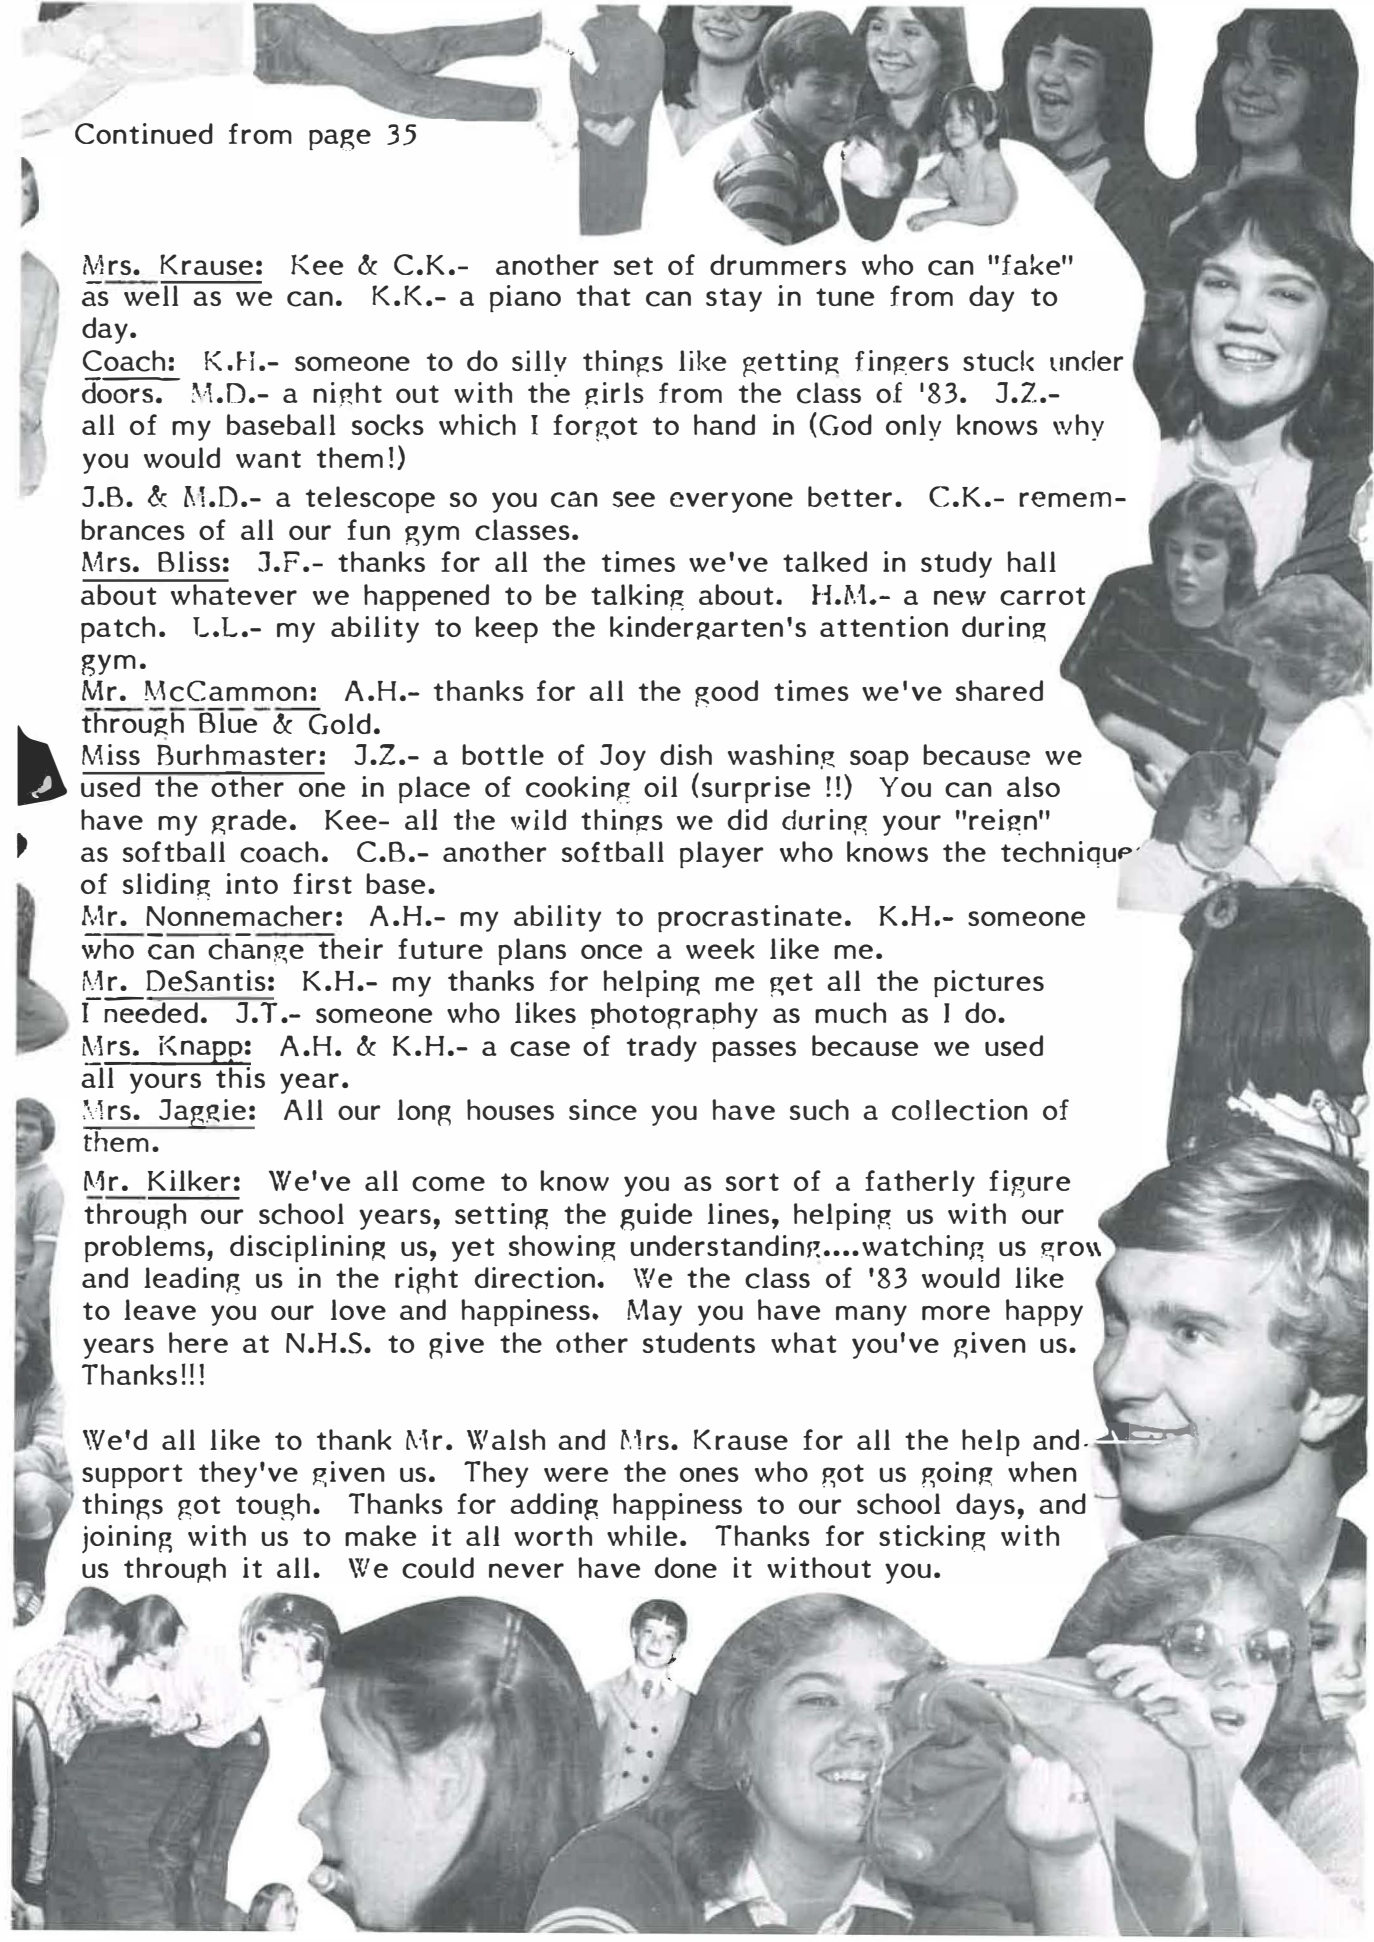

Mr. DeSantis: K.H.- my thanks for helping me get all the pictures I needed. J.T.- someone who likes photography as much as I do.

Mrs. Knapp: A.H. & K.H.- a case of trady passes because we used all yours this year.

Mrs. Jaggie: All our long houses since you have such a collection of them.

Mr. Kilker: We've all come to know you as sort of a fatherly figure through our school years, setting the guide lines, helping us with our problems, disciplining us, yet showing understanding....watching us grow and leading us in the right direction. We the class of '83 would like to leave you our love and happiness. May you have many more happy years here at N.H.S. to give the other students what you've given us. Thanks!!!

We'd all like to thank Mr. Walsh and Mrs. Krause for all the help and support they've given us. They were the ones who got us going when things got tough. Thanks for adding happiness to our school days, and joining with us to make it all worth while. Thanks for sticking with us through it all. We could never have done it without you.

"The Boyfriend", a comedy of three acts, is set in a French finishing school on the outskirts of Nice. The school is supervised by Madame Dubonnet (Michelle Berry). Polly Browne (Gail Cortese) a student at the school, is the sole heir to the fortune of her millionaire father, Percival Browne (Philip Beck). Mr. Browne thinks that any gentleman friends of Polly's are only after her money, and cautions her against any serious relationships.

In order to impress her friends Maisie (Candace Horizny), Dulcie (Diane Gilbert), Fay (Susan Kraus), and Nancy (Laura Vanatta), Polly invents a boyfriend and writes herself loveletters. On the day of the Carnival, a great celebration in France, the plot begins to thicken. Polly becomes frantic because she doesn't have an escort for the ball, and all her friends are expecting to meet the man who has been writing such wonderful loveletters. As luck would have it, Polly meets Tony (Richard Lehr) who she thinks is a mere messenger boy, but is actually the son of Lord and Lady Brockhurst.

Through a series of comic misunderstandings, the audience was kept well entertained and the play ended with Polly and Tony falling in love, and the enlightenment of everyone's true identity.

"The Boyfriend", presented on November 19 and 20, was the third musical that the senior chorus has enacted under the direction of Mrs. Gloria Krause. Special thanks go to her, Elaine Giguere and Jeff Roberts, the accompanist.

The 1983 Narrowsburg Varsity basketball team played to a 6-8 league record (8-10 overall), which didn't truly indicate the quality of their playing ability.

The team was led by junior ballhandler John Meyer, who averaged 19.3 points per game, and Chris Gilbert who averaged 18.6 points, including an impressive 78% shooting accuracy from the foul line. Point guard Tony Lyons contributed 9.2 points per game. Although having to play the entire season against taller opponents, John Zaccari and Lance Mercado hustled and battled gamely under the boards. Robie Wells provided a valuable relief, and the return of injured Robert Francis sparked a 5-3 closing surge. Sophomore Steven Svecak rounded out the team.

Coach Walsh can look forward to a veteran team returning for the 1983-84 season.

The Girls Varsity Basketball team wasn't as successful as they had hoped to be during the '82-'83 season. Unfortunately, they were able to win just two games. 5 seniors filled the starting slots. Diane, the teams leading scorer, averaged 17 points a game.

Mr. Scheuren, Coach

Cathy showed her strength by ripping down rebounds and using her "shake and bake" under basket for a few well needed points. Ball handling was taken care of by Kee, Michelle and Cindy. The three seniors exhibited amazing ball handling and outside shots to aid in the Indians attack. Sue K., a senior, Sue, Patty, Kim and Marie, all Juniors also saw some pl. time by relieving the starting five. Although the Indians season wasn't 100 percent succe "Rocket" Ron Scheuren made sure it was unforgettable. The J.V. team started out as eag young players. Although they only won 3 games, their hustling on the court never ceased.

Our 1982 girls soccer season may not have been what we had foreseen, ending with a 3-10-1 record, but our defense rated high, holding back the scoring drive of many WSL teams such as D.V. Their coach forecasted a sunny day for the scoring of Donna Forester, but the clouds started coming when the defense stopped Donna in her tracks, causing her not to score a single goal. Afterwards, their coach was quoted as saying, "No matter how hard we tried, we just couldn't score more than one goal. Narrowsburg was quick on the ball as any team we've played this year. "

The Seniors consisted of Diane Gilbert, goalie, injured (as usual), Kelli Fuller, fullback, scoring her first goal, congratulations, (Cindy Luben???), Kathleen Hankins, halfback, (temper, temper), Cathy Barnes, halfback, (what a foot!!!), Cindy Kraus, halfback and fullback, (wherever she was needed most), and Gail Cortese, front line, (Historic Screams). Two of our Seniors, Cindy Kraus and Gail Cortese, were chosen for the WSL All-Star Second Team.

The 1982 Indians were a blend of youth and experience. Seniors like Pete Hankins and Mike Gilbert piloted a balanced attack which led to the Indians seven win, five loss record, clinching a birth in the sectionals. The team not only had a strong defense, but a potent offense, mixing power with consistency. Senior Brian Starr led the team in batting with a .412 batting average, followed by Paul Furk who had a batting average of .322. Mike Gilbert led the team with three home runs. The leading scorers for the Indians were John Meyer and Brian Starr. Meyer also did well at the mound, winning four games while losing just one. Players like Chris Gilbert and Pete Hankins led the defense for the Indians. Overall, the Indians had a good team in '82 and we're looking forward to seeing them in '83.

to open the wrong doors. Clark, to be a parking attendant. Paul B., to not color his stereo and records. Mrs. Norden, the world's supply of tape for her mouth.
Mike D., to become a woman hater, which I doubt. To Diane, I will she never gets a lunch pail because I still have a headache. To Tina, I will a halfway decent laugh and a pair of dark glasses so you can't see when she gives you dirty looks.
To Gail, the ability to always say something smart. To Kee and Cindy, lifetime supplies of B.V. To Cathy, the ability
I possess of not making fun of people with big eyes or who are fat. To Chris W., I will myself.

Sue K.- To Keeks, I will the "Blond Brownies" of her dreams. To Cathy, her favorite saying, "Eat me Mommy!" and a Brandy Alexander without ice. To Cindy, normality, she needs all she can get. To Mr. Bea, many more 7th period study halls with four fantastic people. Finally, to the Class of 1983, success and happiness always.

Cathy B.- I will Rich all my love and good times we've shared together. To Kelli, all the guys in the Team Room and a whopper. To my best friend Debbie, all Kelli's leftovers, a trip to Hershey Park and the gray truck. To Tina and Chris, the Bronco. To Diane, a pre-engagement ring. To Gail, a Vampire. To Kee, that munchy Brian Kelley and many thanks for all the good times we had together! To Cindy, a donut and a 360 on 652. To Mikey, Sparky. To Robert, my ability to make fun of people without getting caught! To Ron, a secret passage. To my big brother, Scott M., a Chevy truck (green) and a (red) Nova of your own, and good luck with what's-her name. To Susan, a free drink at Southgate and at Friendly Joe's. To Cheryl, my sense of humor, which is very rare! To Mom, many thanks for always being there when I needed you most! To Doug K., who has been bugging me to get in this will I leave, the Bronco. Sorry Chris and Tina!

Debbie- To my best friend Cathy, I will my ability to drive like "Barb" and "Barb's" car horn. To Doreen, I will my curls so she doesn't have to spend hours curling her hair. To Donna, my safe driving ability. To Kelli, the ability to be a great mother someday. To Cindy, a NEW driver's license. To Lilia, a cute American guy. To Cheryl, thanks for all those memorable times in the Guidance Office. To the two people who play the biggest part in my life, my parents, I will all the love and happiness there is to offer, and of course my Zippy. And last, but not least love and happiness to the Class of '83.

Sal- To Kee, my Mercedes so you can drive in class. To Cindy, a crash helmet for driving. Cathy, I leave you the best, beautiful. Sue K., I leave my car because I can trust you with it. Diane, I leave a N.Y.S.P. key chain. Gail, I will all my thanks for everything. To James, my impersonation of Frank. To Ronnie, my ability to pick up girls. To my class, I will all the luck and success in the future.

John F. - To Zac and Ronnie, I will my good taste in clothes. To Kee, Cathy, Cindy and Wally, I will my body. To my family, I will my love and admiration. To my classmates I will much happiness and success in the future.

Kathleen-To Cathy (B.F.), I leave a pair of "Zoom" binoculars to focus in on # of the N.Y. Giants. To Cin (T.F.), I v a blue & white Camaro and $2.00 worth of Day's cookies. To Sue, I will Buck and a drink at "Southgate". To Deb S I will S.T. To Sue (my cuz), I will Mr Prez. To Mike D., Scott M., and Sal, I will "a night to remember". To Kari and Al, I will a Saturday night off at W.P. To Rob F., I will a life-size "Po Bear" to keep him in line. To the rest of the Class, I will much luck and happiness.

Scott H.- I, Scott Hallock, leave to Fr Wyss, a six pack of Heinieken. To Kee and Cindy, a lock of my hair. To John I leave my 1962 Classic Galaxy. To R my ability to keep all four wheels on the ground. To the Class of '83 I leave my quote.

Allison W.- To my boyfriend Grant, I will my car, my love and the song "Endless Love". To Lisa A., I will my red velvet shirt and the ability to stay with a guy for more than a week (W.O.C.)! To Cathy S., I will all the great times we've shared at Shop Rite and Bob Co. To Denise S., I will a world without Ja V. To my grandparents and my mother my love, my respect, and all the happiness life has to offer. To Mr. Kilker, Mr. N., and Mr. McCammon, I will my respect and gratitude. And last, but not least, to Bob C., I will a heart.

Lisa- To Allison W., I will all my make-up & Bob C. To Laura L., a bottle of Black brandy & all the campers I can find. To John B. & Bill L., all the dirty jokes in typing. To my brother George, a girl that will treat him right. To Andy, all the love and happiness money can't buy. Mom & Dad, anything and everything, you deserve the best.

IN MEMORY

A very deep sadness blanketed our lives after the untimely, accidental death of Joan Utegg, beloved senior student, a gentle soul.

Joan was a maturing young lady, happy in her ways, good natured, unselfish, a kind, precious person who appreciated the goodness of human life and was patient with its limitations.

May the thoughts and prayers of us all comfort Joan's family and friends with the same kind of loving care Joan blessed all of us. We will always treasure her memory in our hearts.

Here we are, the class of '83, finally becoming graduates of Narrowsburg Central High, to go our own ways down the paths of life. We're still trying to figure out if we really proved ourselves and earned our high school diplomas, or whether the faculty and staff just couldn't put up with us anymore! There is just one thing we'd like to do before leaving, and that's just to leave a little something to the teachers to remember us by.

Mr. Martin: M.M.- a calculator, to learn how to use this kind of machine.

C.K.- a future Math 12 class as big and as smart as ours was.

Mr. Scheuren: Kee & C.K.- a fire extinguisher and the ashes from the fire they set in Lab. K.K.- a fish tank plant that will stay alive.

Mr. Bea: S.I.- another person that can keep your room in tip-top shape.

R.F.- a years worth of detention with me as the teacher. K.K.- a Spanish student who can understand Spanish.

Mr. Wolfe: From the class- the "precious" memories of our 9th grade homeroom. D.D. & C.B.- a lunch date at the Midtown 5th period.

S.H.- the ability to keep a cool temper. R.F.- to become the heaviest, bad-mouthing comedian in a library.

Mrs. Norden: Accounting class- a vending machine that gives away free soda and lunches for 3rd period. L.L.- someone to go to the bank for you. J.F.- my superior typing skills. C.B.- some good gossip. S.I.- more insults about me. S.H.- a picture of me for your desk so you won't get lonely in record keeping. D.D., C.B., K.F.- 3 advanced typists just like us. "We know you love us!"

Mr. Graff: S.M., C.B., M.D., & S.I.- a table like ours in English this year. M.M.- a book of "good" jokes. R.F.- muscles as big as mine and a deep voice.

Mr. Bosch: A.H.- a book of "Allison's Favorite Poems" and lots of thanks for all the time and help you and Miss Roll have given me. (Good Luck next year) K.H.- someone "special". L.L.- I will you someone else who will take 3 years of art and make nothing. S.H.- some more Beethoven records and a stereo system which has a preset volume control so Mrs. Knapp can do her hearing tests.

Miss Dunne: S.M.- my father, since she loves him so much.

Mrs. Weber: C.K.- memories of the good times we had in my senior year. D.D. & C.B.- two lunch buddies that are just as exciting as we were.

Mr. Walsh: R.F.- more muscles than mouth and the ability to beat me one on one. J.Z.- the name "Coach" because you proved and showed everyone you're one of the best.

Graduation 1982

The fifty-second commencement in Narrowsburg Central School was held for a graduating class of 35, including two early graduates, on Friday, June 25, 1982, at 8:00 p.m. An excited hum hung in the air of the gymnasium as the audience awaited the grand entrance of the seniors. Outside, the class gift of bushes and shrubs, planted around the school grounds, grew quietly in the warm dusk.

Among the graduates were six members of the National Honor Society. The following seniors were awarded for their academic excellence: Carol Guttzeit, Summa Cum Laude Regents; Jean Gabriel, Magna Cum Laude Regents; Paul Furk, Summa Cum Laude Local; Dale Conklin, Magna Cum Laude Local; Laura Feagles, Cum Laude Regents; Third Honors; Regina Wolfe, Fourth Honors; Judy Bosco, Fifth Honors.

The class of '82 will long be remembered in Narrowsburg for their character and warm-heartedness.

Congratulations from Dr. Jon Sternburg, Dick Lehr and the Staff of the Delaware Medical started off with a delicious smorgasbord followed by the main attraction, the awarding of the trophies. The first trophies presented were for girls' soccer. Mrs. Bliss presented the trophy for most improved player to Judy Bosco and the trophy for the most valuable player to Allison Larkin. Coach Elco then presented the trophies for boys' soccer. Jack Healy received the trophy for most improved and Eric Hector received the trophy for most valuable.

The next awards presented were for girls' basketball. Diane Gilbert and Stacie Scheuren shared the award for most valuable. Coach Elco then presented the trophies for boys' basketball. Kevin Crandall received the award for most improved and Dale Conklin received the award for most valuable. Agnes Reith was selected cheerleader of the year.

The next set of awards were for girls' softball and boys' baseball. Miss Buhrmaster presented the award for the most improved to Sue Rembish and the award for the most valuable to Allison Larkin. Coach Elco presented the award for most improved in boys' baseball to John Meyer and most valuable to Brian Starr. Stacie Scheuren then received the Coaches trophy for her efforts in sports.

All evening the suspense was building in anticipation of the Athletes of the Year awards. Because of her outstanding efforts in all sports, Allison Larkin received the award for Girl Athlete of the Year. The award for Boy Athlete of the Year was a little unusual in that it was shared by two people. Mike Gilbert and Pete Hankins were both honored for their outstanding achievements in all team sports.

This year's athletic banquet was held at the Narrowsburg Town Hall with a crowd of about one hundred twenty students, parents, and faculty attending. The evening

ACADEMIC RECOGNITION NIGHT

Academic Recognition Night 1982, was held on Wednesday, June 2, at 7 p.m. in the school gym. This annual event is hosted by the Student Council, whose members present the awards. Recipients are acknowledged for scholarship, achievement, leadership, and service to school organizations. The award for Excellence in Art went to Joe Powell, in Journalism, to Allison White, in Music, to Jean Gabriel and Laura Feagles, in Science Lab to Charlie Knapp, and in Social Studies and English 7-9, to Lucy Tyler. Charlie Knapp also received awards for Service to Business Education and Photo Club. Awards for service to the Physical Education Department were won by Wallicia McCaskill and Lance Mercado. Awards for Yearbook and Pep Club were presented as well as 1 and 2 year awards for Student Council Service.

Tammi Tyler was awarded for being most improved Senior and Sue Furk for Pep Club participation. The award for 11th grade leadership went to Kee Hankins and Cindy Kraus, for 10th grade, to Debbie Shaffer and Cindy Luben, and for 9th grade, to Michelle Berry and Jerry Feagles. The 8th grade citizenship recipient was Doreen Drollinger and 7th grade, Stacey Fuller. Laurie Meckle received the Statesman Award. Agnes Reith was selected as Girl of the Year, and Peter Hankins as Boy of the Year.

The last part of the evening was devoted to the induction of nine students into the National Honor Society. They included: Philip Beck, Cindy Luben, John Meyer, Joe Powell, Debbie Shaffer, Michael Tampone, Laura Vannatta, and Robie Wells. Congratulations to one and all.

This page is brought to you by PETE'S PUB- Lake Huntington. Lots of luck to the 1983 Graduates- Anita, Pete, Peter, Maria and Manuel

JUNIOR PLAY

The main event in our Junior year was our class play. After several meetings and endlessly searching through books, we finally came up with a very successful and unforgettable play, Charley's Aunt. The play, a comedy of errors, takes place at St. Olde's College in Oxford, England, at the turn of the century. The plot revolves around two undergraduates trying to gain the affection of two young ladies, and a rich aunt who delays her visit and is therefore impersonated by a third undergraduate. Comic confusion and romantic triangles result making for an evening of side-splitting laughter.

During the two long, hard months of constant rehearsing, our class had a lot of fun and became really close. One practice we'll never forget is when Peter Toscano was in one of his crazy moods and couldn't stop laughing and joking around while trying to say his lines. Unfortunately, his practice only lasted a half hour until Mrs. Krause finally got fed up and said, "Go home. We can't practice with Peter like this!!!!" In another strange episode, Diane Gilbert and Sal Indelicato were rehearsing their lines. Sal, (spontaneously taking notice of who Diane really was and not only the character she portrayed) reached out and grasped her into his arms, kissing her passionately, rather than kissing her hand as the script called for. Along with our other unrehearsed on-stage comedy, stunts seemed to appear underneath the curtain, grabbing moving feet and pulling witting victims under while saying their lines.

My agefright stuck on April 2, but after a few lines, everything went smoothly. We all had a lot of fun, and gained many memorable moments that will never be forgotten.

The cast and crew members would like to thank Mrs. Krause for all her help and patience. We could have never done without you!

JUNIOR PROM

The annual Junior Prom was held on Thursday, May 27, 1982 at the Central House in Beach Lake. The evening started off with a cocktail hour out around the pool, where many couples gathered around to take pictures. While camera flashes were going off, other couples walked hand in hand down the path to a little cove along the water.

Around 7:00 everyone moved to the dining room where we were served a festive turkey dinner, topped off with Strawberry short-cake for desert.

After dinner, the lights dimmed and couples were out on the floor dancing to music by Sun City. Not only were the students dancing, but there was also a jitter-bug contest between some of the parents and faculty. As I remember, they were all quite good dancers and the contest ended with a tie.

Finally, the main attraction of the evening, the crowning of the Queen and King of the 1983 prom. Nominated for King, were Clark Kelly, Peter Hankins, and Barry Falk and nominees for Queen were Dawn Hallock, Stacey Scheuren, and Sue Rembish. The results were, Barry Falk as the King and Sue Rembish as the Queen. The evening was very much enjoyed by everyone and I'm sure it was unforgettable for all.
