Graduation 1985

On June 21, 1985, we enthusiastically said "So long" to the Class of '85. The guest speaker for the evening was Dr. William Gasko, an alumnus of N.C.S., holder of the P.H.D. in Quantum Electrodynamics and Information Theory, as well as advanced degrees in aerospace engineering and physics. Dr. Gasko, who is the Chief Executive Officer and Co-founder of the Millis Corporation, founded the Leonard E. Martin Scholarship, awarded for the first time to Gerald Feagles.

Gerard Feagles graduated Regents Magna Cum Laude and Michelle Berry Regents Summa Cum Laude. Both Gerard and Michelle received a number of other honors and scholarships. Regents third, fourth, and fifth honors went to Stephen Rasmussen, Christina Smith, and William Rose, respectively. Stephen and Christina were very effective as the student speakers. Cheryl Deighton graduated Summa Cum Laude, Local, with Stephen Svecak, Magna Cum Laude, Local.

One of the highlights of the evening was when Board of Education President Alfred Smith presented his daughter, Christina, with her high school diploma.

PROM COURT: Left to right: C. Smith, D. Foster, L. Bickel, J. Mercado, C. Kelly and G. Feagles.

The theme for the 1985 Prom was "All I Need." The prom was held at Central House. The music was provided by "Imig." At 10 p.m. the King and Queen were crowned. The King and Queen for 1985 were Carl Kelly and Christina Smith. Attendants were Doreen Foster, Elizabeth Bickel, Justin Mercado and Jerry Feagles.

Athletic Banquet

Dawn Barnes, Athlete of the Year

Carl Kelly, Athlete of the Year

The annual Athletic Banquet was held on June 7, 1985. The evening was highlighted by Mrs. Buddenhagen's and Mrs. Wieland's excellent food and Mr. Scheuren's Don Rickles-like individual self-improvement recommendations for the girls' basketball team.

Girls' sports awards were Stacey Fuller, Soccer MVP and Wendy Tyler, most improved. Dawn Barnes, an all-league selection, was the basketball MVP, and Cindy Rasmussen, an all-league honorable mention as an eighth grader, was most improved. Softball featured a new award for most versatile, Erin Kilker, with Wendy Tyler the most improved and Dawn Barnes winning her second MVP. Chris Smith was named Cheerleader of the Year and Denise Schalck received the Coach's Trophy.

The MVP in boys' soccer was Jerry Feagles, and George Martin was most improved. V.R. Scheuren was named most valuable in basketball. Eric Luben was most improved. V.R. copped his second 1985 MVP in baseball, while Dan Beck and Jason Kraack were named most improved. Dawn Barnes and Carl Kelly were named athletes of the year.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Burke

Several new members were inducted into the Narrowsburg Honor Society by Mr. Nonnenmacher during a brief but dignified ceremony conducted by senior Society members. Mrs. Rita Burke provided a most memorable and inspirational speech. Mrs. Burke's husband, Mr. Thomas Burke, was an English teacher and librarian at Narrowsburg for a good number of years and many of his former students in attendance were anxious to remember themselves to the Burkes. Mrs. Krause concluded the evening with the Jazz Band's rousing rendition of "New York, New York."

Academic Recognition Night

Girl of the Year

Boy of the Year

The annual Academic Recognition Night was held on the evening of June 7, 1985. It is a night for recognizing achievement in the academic realm and school service. Lorrie Christon, Student Council President, conducted the ceremony, and the Student Council assisted her in the presentations of the many awards. Michelle Berry, who had spent her senior year at S.C.C.C., was chosen "Girl-of-the-Year", while Stephen Rasmussen was honored as "Boy-of-the-Year." Mrs. Krause provided musical entertainment with the band and chorus.

1985 Junior Play directed by Mrs. Gloria Krause

1 — they make these compact cars smaller every year.

The class of '86 spent many hours of their Junior year developing and "perfecting" with the help and patience of Mrs. Krause a three act comedy called "Grandad Goes Wild." Luckily, even though sometimes we were doubting, the play was well done. The resilience of the class came through when a key member of the cast had academic difficulties and another classmate had to learn all of his lines in one day.

STUDENT ACHIEVEMENT

The following essay was submitted by Erin Kilker in a nationwide contest sponsored by Art Carved Class Rings. Erin won second place and a $2000 prize for her sensitive and thoughtful essay on "What a Class Ring means to me." Class rings are a universal experience for high school students and we are proud to include Erin's prize winning writing in our 1986 Chieftain.

RING FIVE TIMES

Although we humans have been fortunate to have been born with five natural senses, you, my class ring, possess these senses of sight, taste, touch, smell, and hearing.

Imagine the musical tones of a class ring resurrecting the memories of the cheering crowds at ball games, the applause at a class play, the roar of the cafeteria, rushing wind between classes, the awful bells echoing through the halls and the waiting for them to end the week for the long anticipated, Friday night.

As I gaze into you, glittering piece of gold wrapped on my finger, I hear the laughter of my classmates and close friends; I hear the phantom bells that no longer exist.

Staring yet into that piece of shining inheritance, I remember the gourmet tastes of cafeteria spaghetti, oven baked pizza, crunchy tacos, simmering Salisbury steak, mouth-watering cheeseburgers and seashore hotdogs and I miss sharing the friendly meals. The remembered sweetness of the chewing gum still stimulates my taste buds in spite of the horror I feel when I remember being caught chewing it in math class.

My beautiful ring, I hate to say it but — you smell! You smell of the cigarette smoke inhaled in the lavatory. But ring, you also remind me of perfume sprayed in the locker room following the battle of a soccer game. You remind me of the fragrance of baking bread, fresh waxed floors, sweaty socks, steam heat, and a long awaited fresh breeze of the softball season.

You my friend, touch me, and make me feel secure holding me close as that "special someone" first did. We danced on prom night. You touch my hand with the same tenderness as he did. You touch my memory of the hugs of my parents on graduation night as whispers of "you've grown up too fast" again touch my ears.

Gazing into your shining crystal ball, I have visions of people, acquaintances, associates and close friends with whom I've shared precious moments of life.

These memories of special friends with whom fond dreams, sacred promises, and sacred secrets have been shared, vaporize before me. As I flash back to the beginning, my friend, I visualize the first school day. I was frightened, as was everyone, but within minutes we instantly became friends. Before one could blink we were playing tricks on the teacher. We were all so young. The years rolled by suddenly we were seniors, rulers of the school, royally looked up to, or so we thought.

You now know how the five senses exist in you as they do in me. You touch the nostalgia of sound, sight, smell, taste, and touch as a catalyst to the memory bank of yesteryears. You cause me to remember the people and things that live within my heart. Without you to remind me, my past memories would slowly fade eventually into extinction. But, because you capture the sensual memories of a treasured time, the vault to my heart can always be reopened.

Do you know where your children are?

Coach Elco's boys' varsity were the 1985-86 incarnation of the Cardiac Kids, providing fans with exciting, fastpaced, come-from-behind action. After losing a tough league opener to Roscoe, we bounced back to defeat Jeff 61-44 on the strength of a second-half rally. We then dropped the next two games, the second of which included Creedmoor's brawl-to-end-all versus Tri-Valley. Thus inspired, we posted come-from-behind victories against Manor and Eldred, overcoming an eleven point half-time deficit in the latter game. Not wanting to rest on our laurels, we promptly lost the next three games. Even though on the surface things looked bleak, there was indeed a silver lining in the cloud in the form of Gary "Howdy" Falk. Finally unleashed from the cast that encased his broken thumb, Gary made a major contribution during the stretch run.

Our next game was a tight 51-49 victory over Manor, highlighted by a last-second slashing, slicing, whirling dervish layup by star guard Dan Vannatta, capping a 20-10 fourth quarter rally. We followed these heroics with another fourth quarter win over Eldred, featuring a twelve-point, strong rebounding performance by "Howdy" Falk, who displayed a formidable arsenal of scoops and base line finger rolls. Surely this team was bound for the play-offs, only to be temporarily derailed by a loss to Delaware Valley in our next game. We got back on track in against Florida, a game featuring the return from the disabled list of the other half o cousins-in-arms tandem, Douger-the-Mugger K whose tenacious defense and clutch foul sho helped clinch another hard-fought win.

Our season ended in abject disappointment heart-breaking 60-58 defeat at the hands of Jeff. Tr form, we had a furious last-minute rally, but we fail capitalize on several rebound opportunities a buzzer.

Although we did not qualify for post-season pla team played quality basketball characterized by passing, hustle and determination. Bombardier Scheuren paced the team in scoring averagin points a game and he picked up a number of spec assists late in the season as defenses began to ki his drives. Augmenting the quick, stylish sharpsho of Dan Vannatta and the wily, competetive hus Snooply Lyons was the tempers-flaring inside gar Will Creamer and the shake-and-bake, in-your moves of Downtown Bob Brown. The bench rounded out by senior journeyman Joe Kilker and ju Kevin Knecht and Frank "Fester" Szabo.

J.V.

It was a learning season for the junior varsity rookie coach Marty Christon. Although we didn't many games the team exhibited a camaraderie spirit that transcended mere wins and loses.

Girls' Basketball

The 1985-86 Girls' Varsity finished with a disappointing 2-10 record. Handicapped by a knee injury to star forward Doreen Drollinger, the team struggled without a bona fide scorer to complement star center Dawn Barnes. Freshman guard Cindy Rasmussen continued her meteoric development, contributing needed outside scoring. Stacey Fuller continued to demonstrate her soccer prowess, playing defense with her feet. Forwards Andrea Gilbert and Erin Kilker battled under the boards, with Erin pumping in 8 points in the last two minutes in a late season win against arch rival D-V

We were sparked by bench players Vanessa Christ, Berni Jungblut, and Wendy Elco. Wendy led a charmed life, committing all manner of mayhem without drawing the attention of the referees.

Our J-V did what they could to restore Mr. Scheuren's usually optimistic personality by winning 10 of their 12 games. JoAnn Christ dominated from the center position, with help from forwards Andrea Gilbert, Vanessa Christ, and Veronica Scheuren. Kim Nober, and Teri "Skeeter" Meyer swarmed all over the court, making life miserable for opposing ball handlers. Linda Kelly, Wanda Janowski, and Kim Elco filled in well when called upon. Wait till next year!!!!

Just dropped in.

Creedmoor dominates.

The good, the bad, and the ugly.

The boys had a short but successful season. They beat Eldred and Milford twice each, but lost to Pocomo Catholic, finishing at 4-2.

The leading scorers were Will Creamer with nine goals, Danny Vannatta with four goals, and Gary Falk with three goals. Doug Kraus also claims credit for scoring four goals, among other daring-do.

The girls had a decent year finishing with a 5-8 record. Unfortunately this doesn't reflect the many well played games.

The game that showed the skill and potential of the girls the best was the Roscoe game. Losing 3-1 at half time the girls came back in the second half to win the game 5-3.

With the team for the last time were seniors Anja K., Sue H., and Sue F.

Carl Kelly was our only senior on complete .500 ball club. The spring of '86 promises to be our best team in years. First year varsity pitchers Danny Vannatta, V.R. Scheuren, Rich Lyons and Doug Kraus will all return with veteran Dan Beck catching. Top batters and speed merchants V.R., Snoopy, Dan Vannatta, and Dan Beck should all hit over 300 and collect 50 plus stolen bases.

A GOOD START THAT NEVER ENDS...

At Sullivan County Community College, a two-year college of the State University of New York (SUNY), we provide you with a "good start that never ends." Like the kite your achievements and creativity can reach new heights.

■ Whether you choose a career-oriented or college transfer program, you can be sure that when you graduate from Sullivan, you can continue - either at a four-year college or in a profession of your choice - in confidence. More than 80% of Sullivan's graduates are working in careers relating to their majors.

■ And, you don't have to wait until you graduate to work. Through the on-campus office of the New York Department of Labor, 60% of Sullivan's students found employment last year, earning from $90 to $110 per weekend in the surrounding Catskill resorts.

■ In short, Sullivan is a place in which you can set goals, gain new insights about yourself, develop interpersonal relationships and acquire knowledge and skills which will strengthen your character and make you more independent. That's why at Sullivan we say we're the "good start that never ends." ■

CLASS MEMORIES

"Hose-heads from the start"

Remember when:

i. Schalck took Wendy "around the corner."
ve used to be a "block head," literally.
and Doug used to sleep in the closet s experience with bearded terror in a forcible move to the closet th grade art.
Spall didn't appreciate Doreen's fashion critique during 6th le English.
threatened Gary, in Kindergarten, about a certain, blond, six old, "bombshell" named Michelle.
i didn't understand English, and resorted to crying on the first of Kindergarten.
rntown Bobby Brown did a "Smooth Move" laxative commercial ie 6th grade.
was right about a math problem.
I got "tied up" with a desk.
had to sit through Mr. Graff's one man rendition of Shakespeare 0th grade English.
by Brown decided he likes Social Studies better in a horizontal ition.

- Dawn and Bruce used to hold hands during movies in Kindergarten.
- VR and Doug used to terrorize Melissa in 9th grade homeroom.
- You got a higher grade than Dawn in anything.
- Rob almost passed out while at the board in math class and walked into his desk in an attempt to sit.
- Will and Tom tied the ladies teacher's room door shut.
- All the boys in the class handcuffed Mike and beat him up.
- You fell down the stairs.
- Two certain mischievous actors (VR and Doug) put cinder blocks in the four suitcases Anja had to carry on stage in the Junior Class Play.
- Lori fell on a banana peel during a musical.
- Sue and Wendy were the "fat twins."
- Rob Brown had a basketball tantrum in the gym.
- We sang "It's a Small World."
- Mike Hector did his "Mr. Kilker" impressions in the hall.
- Doug joined the Marines.
- We began sitting together at lunch last year.

Susan Huebner: To Rich, all our fights; To Wendy (Guendalin Grego), her dream date with my brother Allan; to Sue F., the ability to break my record; Lori, all my grill cheese crusts; Michelle, all the threesome house plans. To Mr. Kilker and Mrs. B. a chocolate pie from the fat twins; Mary, may she never score more than my 14 goals and for being an excellent Peck checker; Mission Accomplished; To Joanie, my dearest friend, any tan guy she wants on the beach, good luck with everything in life; to Kim S. in Florida, all our good memories with many more to come; To Ron a bigger window, many more times and my body, since he asked for it; to my parents, thanks for trusting me in Narrowsburg (Why? Lord knows) All my love forever; to my classmates all the wild and kinky times and may all your dreams be fulfilled with happiness and success ya'll deserve it!!

V.R. Scheuren: To M.H. the good campouts we had and all the fun we had in English. To Brown the ability to jam it. To Joe the ability not to get us lost in Scranton. To Gary allow him to drive my car when he wants. To Snoop and Will all the good times we had in the living hell and the ability to win at Risk. To the final six math students all the good times we had in Mr. Martin's math class. To Doreen a very very special friend one of the best years of my life that I will treasure and the ability to take dog face as a compliment. To all my sisters, thank you for putting up with me for 17 years and I will all of you all the luck in the world. To my parents, I owe you my life and more. I will never be able to repay you for all the things you have done but I sure would like to try. I know I never said this but Mom and Dad, I love you more than anything in the world. Thanks for being there. Finally to the class of '86 the best of luck and may we all be a success.

Cheryl Ann McClure Anderson: As my first will and testament I leave to my parents the ability to go on. To my brother survival tactics and my musical ability. To Linda the ability to laugh in sad times and my drivers license. To Marla the strength to survive. To Debbie the perfect buy. To Jeanne a car with four wheels and runs. To everyone the knowledge and strength to survive in this world. FOLLOW YOUR INSTINCTS AND DO NOT BE INFLUENCED TOTALLY BY OTHERS AROUND YOU.

Dawn Barnes: To Mr. Scheuren, I leave a ball team with a record as perfect as ours. To & K.R. I leave a sax section that reads music. Gary, I leave my ability to stare out the window and still know what's going on. To V.R. "F. Kennedy" and a successful math career. Bruce, I will a locker a mile from mine, and to the ability to speak Spanish without a French accent. To Melissa, I leave all our crazy times, a "good views" she wants, a bottle of aspirin, the patience to finish this yearbook. I leave sisters my ability to avoid detentions and I you success in your future years at NCS. To Mom and Dad I couldn't have made it without you. Thanks for needed advice and being there to listen, I love you! Lastly to my classmates, I wish you all success in the future, God Bless you

Dan Beck: Being of sound mind I Daniel Beck hereby present my will. To D.K., I will many of our hunting trips. To G.F. I will Mr. Ma notes, to D.D. I will my good knee. To L.H., W.E., S.F., and M.G. This really bothered him and he questioned the LORD about it. "LORD, you said that once I decided to follow you, you'd walk with me all the way. But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why when I needed you most you would leave me."

The LORD replied, "My precious, precious child, I love you and I would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints; it was then that I carried you."

One night a man had a dream. He dreamed he was walking along the beach with the LORD. Across the sky flashed scenes from his life. For each scene, he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand; one belonging to him, and the other to the LORD.

When the last scene of his life flashed before him, he looked back at the footprints in the sand. He noticed that many times along the path of his life there was only one set of footprints. He also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in his life.

CHIEFTAIN

Mr. Leonard L. Martin

We, the Senior class, dedicate this 1986 Chieftain to Mr. Leonard L. Martin, who has served as an instructor of mathematics and science at Narrowsburg for 35 years. During that time Mr. Martin has earned the respect of three generations of students by establishing high standards of excellence and achievement. It is to Mr. Martin's credit that students from our small rural school have had the superb preparation in math that has enabled them to compete in higher education with students from much larger and more affluent schools. The students, faculty, and parents of the Narrowsburg Central School District regard Mr. Martin's retirement with great sadness. His professionalism, concern for students, and his firm but good humored approach to teaching will be sorely missed. We wish that he and Mrs. Martin enjoy many more healthy, happy years together.
