

NINETEEN HUNDRED AND EIGHTY EIGHT

CHIEFTAIN

R. E. Scherren
c/8/88

The Yearbook Staff really didn't know who to dedicate this 1988 Chieftain to, but we did know that we wanted the book to be special, because we feel that Narrowsburg School is a special place. It offers its students, K - 12, the unique experience of growing and learning all together. This creates a special bond and feeling of school pride that isn't found in big, impersonal schools. Narrowsburg is just that — a small, "person" school — a place where everyone from the littlest kindergartner to the biggest senior can share good times and bad, helping each other along the way.

To show the willingness of upperclassmen to help younger students, the Yearbook Staff asked the juniors and seniors what advice they'd give, based on their own experiences, to upcoming classes to make their last years at NCS more fulfilling. Some of the responses were:

Set a goal, work hard to attain it, and then celebrate your achievement. You deserve to have some fun. Put everything you've got into everything you do. Always give 110%. That way, no matter what the "score" is at the end, in your heart you know you've won.

Don't waste what's there for the taking. Learn and participate in all you can — sports, music, art, drama, clubs — Narrowsburg is small enough to give you the opportunity to try a little of everything. You may not always be the star, but you'll still be an important part.

Have confidence in yourself and you can do almost anything.

One of the best parts of school is the people around you. NCS is special in that everyone knows everyone else and cares about them and our school.

In this Yearbook, we tried to show this caring and togetherness. Enjoy!!

Class History

We started high school off with a "bang", earning all of $200 (if that) on our thermometer sale. (Anybody want one? There's still a few left in Marty's closet!) For our second activity, which also didn't do so well, we showed two movies, "The Quiet Man" and "Ice Castles". Our third activity, a Mothers' Day Breakfast wasn't exactly a great success either. Right about then, Marty decided we'd aim for Fort Delaware for our class trip! Our Sophomore year we had a jewelry sale in the fall, then a Roast Beef Dinner, and another breakfast. About then we thought we might make it to Honesdale. Our Junior year we got it together (sort of) and had a fairly successful dinner and candy sale. Our last activity that year was the Prom (Dream On), which was fantastic. Our Senior year we had a Roast Beef Dinner and then a fruit and cheese sale. Everyone had a "wonderful" time unloading and carrying all those heavy cases of grapefruit and oranges. Our final activity was an Italian Night Buffet. (The volleyball game was the high point of the evening.) Finally, it was time for the class trip! Believe it or not, (and Marty didn't), we made it to Virginia! (The details of the trip you'll have to ask a Senior about.)

Lost and alone on some forgotten highway traveled by many, remembered by few.

Lookin' for somethin' that I can believe in.

Lookin' for somethin' that I'd like to do . . . with my life.

There's nothin' behind me, and nothin' that ties me to Somethin' that might have been true yesterday.

Tomorrow is open

Right now it seems to be more than enough to just be here today

And I don't know what the future is holdin' in store

I don't know where I'm goin'

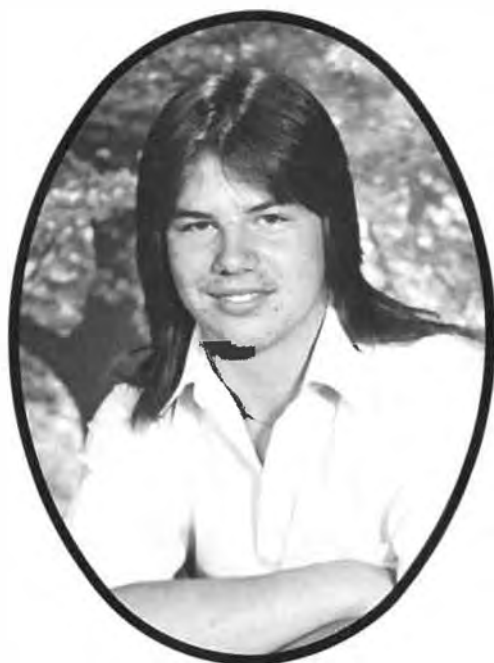

I'm not sure where I've been

There's a spirit that guides me

A life that shines for me and my life is worth the livin'

I don't need to see the end.

Finally to Carolyn, my best friend forever, a double dog dare, "Touch a Go", Jan. '87, another game of football in the snow, a guy who fully appreciates you, all our strange times and talks, Woodstock road, SAD, a gui tape, Mr. JohnJohn, "later for that" (John and Andrew), whip cream, your "Touch Me" dance, the 7up drink, my thanks for always being there, a my love and friendship forever, you are the best!!

Chris Christon — To Jon I will a bb gun and promise not to shoot back at him. To Sean I will the will to keep getting up at 4 a.m. to go jogging — matter how cold or dark it is, and I will the title "Corky", why I don't know. To both Jon and Sean I will the memory of all the great laughs and w times we had at the movies, in Honesdale, Scranton, Liberty, in school, playing soccer, basketball, baseball, and volleyball, and just about goi crazy all the time, everywhere. I also will them my gratitude for always listening (no matter how crazy I got) and for always being there when I need them. To all my class I wish all the happiness and success in the world. Good luck to you in the future, let's keep in touch. To my parents I will my etnal gratitude for bringing me up the right way and being the best parents I could ever hope for — thanks for always backing me up even when I w wrong (which was seldom, all right, always). To my sister, Lorrie, — success as a lawyer and happiness in everything she does as well as my gratitu for always being there and for introducing me to all those college women. To Mike L., Tom, and Dan I will a joke book with 1001 jokes (which shou last about a day). To Pete, Tom, Dan, and Heather — success in the military — if you decide to join. To everyone in my class, all my relatives, all n Army pals, and anyone else reading this article, I wish you good luck in all that you set out to do. Always remember F.I.D.O. (ask me about it if y don't know what it means.) To everyone I will freedom of religion, speech and the right to petition the government (whether you like it or not). Try you'll like it.

Jon Crocitto — To Corky — all our classic moments together, my big mouth so people can hear what you say, the perfect girl, and all my friends and thanks for being there for me all through the years! To "Blade" — all our past experiences w/BB guns, wet towels, Oreos, Bellwood girls, a Row Boats! To Mike W. — all our talks about "you know what", a phone call at the "wrong time", and some new Star Wars figures. To Jacki — "On More Night", and the "cabin". To S.J. — all the rock-n-roll music in the world, a chance to meet RJD, and a beautiful blonde. To Johnny G. — n "Golden J" and someone to play ball w/when I'm not around. To Andrea — someone to make you smile when I'm gone. To Lynn — side one of Zepp lin IV. To Valerie W. — all our good times together. To my "Sister" Erin — DF, my warped sense of humor, all of my thanx for telling me Chri dream, and all of my love forever. To Chris — the summer of '87 (especially Labor Day), the will to make our contract come true, and my love foreve To Fest and Bob — Van Halen, the 5150 walk, a case, and another 3 hr. talk in Bob's car. To Berni — my thanx and friendship for helping me c through these 13 years. To Will — another experience like the "Tee-shirt beatings". To Jacki — a ig thank you for giving me a chance, and becoming a great, best friend, all our talks in your car, and a visit to cousin Ed. To Andrea — thank you for eing there when I needed you most, you’re a great best friend . . . Summer of ’86, and most of all the “perfect” boyfriend. To Jon — a relationship v/out complications, all our talks, and a Big thank you for being the best “boy” friend that a person could ever have. To Brendon — all our great times and ALL my love. Last, but definitely not least, I will my parents, sisters, and brother all my love and gratitude for caring and loving me all my life. I love you all. Finally — Congratulations to the Class of ’88!!!

Kim Nober — Joe — I will Sept. 20, 1985. Since then we’ve shared some of the most memorable times of my life, I love you! Wanda — the summer of ’85!, and all those long talks and deep down secrets between us. Thanks for always being someone I could trust and count on. Andrea — another wild and crazy trip to Florida (J.T., Rock, Dean), those great talks and another basketball season, with all those victories. Veronica — another first party and the many that followed, a driving lesson in James’ Camaro with the door shut, and the man of your dreams. Jacki — another night at Mickey D’s, without a fight with you know who, but this time guess who will be laughing. Ha ha ha. Terri — the ability one day to dunk it and another Florida va- cation. Kerstin — the ability to do what you want when you want and the most happiness that you can get out of it, because you deserve it. Linda — your spot in the back of the bus, giving people behind us the THRILL of their lives. James S. — another trip to the Casino and the best looking and running Camaro you can ever find. Jon — a game of one on one, a party that you’re at and not where you should be, and our friendship forever. Joanie — many more trips to Jack’s. Keith W. — my ability to pick a great race car driver and maybe one day Bill Elliot will make it to the winner’s circle. Wendy — another senior year and success between you and Ken. Sean P. — one good face rake and our friendship forever. Rob — my ability to drive 55 and another surprise double date. Carolyn — another great soccer game so we can say we — their — JoAnn — a full basketball season without eing injured. Dan — those nice Cragar wheels you want (like mine). Glenn and Jena — forever together. Willie — to be on time and our daring abili- ty to be the only ones who parked in the parking lot. Vanessa — the whole front line in soccer, since we won’t be there to join you, and another awe- some hat trick. To my family — a day at the races with Dale Earnhardt leading (sorry Mom — Bill Elliot can finish 2nd), and a special thanks for all the love and support you’ve given me throughout my growing years. I love you! Also, Mom, I would like to let you know how much you being at all my games meant. Thanks for always being there. You’re the best! To my class — our great times, our bad reputation, and all the success in whatever you do.

Jeff Rausch — Upon my departure from this pueblo, I, Jeffrey Rausch, hereby will the following: B.J. — I leave a more fascinating conversationalist than myself and a 1590 SAT score. 1987 PROM

Picture a warm spring evening, sun shining, everything perfect. It was Prom Night, May 22, 1987 — a Friday to be remembered.

After weeks of planning, the long-awaited night had arrived. Girls — your hair was done, your gown was perfect. Guys — you'd picked up your tux and the flowers. You'd both gotten through the picture-taking of your parents, and you'd finally arrived at the Central House.

As you made your way up the walk to the dance pavilion and saw all your friends arriving, your anticipation grew. And you were not disappointed. You reached the doorway and found it covered with a shimmering blue curtain. As you stepped through, it was as if you'd left reality behind and entered a Fantasy Land.

You spent the night as if in a dream — the cocktail hour, dinner, and the dancing to music by Imaj — wishing you'd never wake up. The highpoint of the evening was the crowning of the King and Queen. Junior Class President, Linda Kelly, and Vice-President, Terri Meyer, with the help of Debbie Falk and Bobby Meyer, presented flowers to the second-runners-up, Wendy Tyler and Joe McConnell, and first-runners-up, Marla Reith and Dan Vannatta. The 1987 Prom King and Queen were Snoopy Lyons and Erin Kilker. The evening was made complete with a dance to the theme song, "Dream On." A perfect ending to a perfect night.

SCHOOL PLAY

"The Curse of Frankenstein", directed by Bill Moloney was a huge hit. It was the story of Victor Frankenstein's (Jon Crocitto) and his sidekick, Henry Clerval's (Bary Reith) creation of live creatures, Milo (Sean Prendergast) and Kurt (Darren Fuller) from parts of dead bodies. However, their plans backfired and created all sorts of problems including the murders of Frau Frankenstein (Berni Jungblut), Little Wilma (Cathy Luben), Leonie (Veronica Scheuren), and Frau Montreaux (Kelly Esselman). (Who later came back as Big Otto.) Further problems were created by the "careless" Inspector Webber (Mike Wilson), the "wanton" maid Bridgette (Kelly Weber), and the "wounded" Father Montreaux (Mike McCarthy). (And our stage manager, Cindy Rasmussen!)

The play ended with the heros, Kurt and Rolf Webber (Kevin Esselman), winning the heroines, Elizabeth (Erin Kilker) and Justine (Karen Rasmussen) away from the villains, Victor and Henry.

ATHLETIC BANQUET

Thanks to the hard work of Mrs. Buddenhagen and her staff, the 1987 Athletic Banquet was enjoyed by all who attended. The awards were as follows:

GIRLS' SOCCER: MIP — Veronica Scheuren, Most Difficult to Replace — Erin Kilker, Special Recognition — Stacey Fuller and Carolyn Rembish, MVP — Mary Feagles

BOYS' SOCCER: Recognition for Improvement — Sean Kilker, Jon Crocitto, Darren Fuller, MVP — Kyle Holbert

GIRLS' BASKETBALL: MIP — Berni Jungblut, MVP — Cindy Rasmussen

BOYS' BASKETBALL: MIP — Kevin Knecht, MVP — Dan Vannatta

CHEERLEADER OF THE YEAR — Marla Reith

SOFTBALL: Coach's Trophy — Stacey Fuller, MVP — Kim Nober

BASEBALL: MIP — Frank Szabo, MVP — Snoopy Lyons

GIRL ATHLETE OF THE YEAR — Stacey Fuller

BOY ATHLETES OF THE YEAR — Dan Vannatta and Snoopy Lyons

Congratulations to Mr. Elco who celebrated his 20th year of coaching.

AWARDS ASSEMBLY

The 1987 Academic Recognition Night and the National Honor Society Induction was held on June 3 at 7:30 p.m. at Narrowsburg Central School. Sponsored by the Student Council, the event included the presentation of awards for academic excellence, service, citizenship, and leadership.

Erin Kilker received the Statesman Award for serving as the Student Council President. Dan Vannatta was honored as Vice President, Kelly Esselman as Treasurer, and Wanda Janowski as Secretary.

Dan Vannatta was chosen by his peers as Boy of the Year, and Erin Kilker was chosen Girl of the Year.

The Sousa Award for excellence in band was given to Dan Vannatta; Alice Laarmann received the choral award.

The guest speaker for the evening was Mrs. Beth Peck.

The third annual Honor Society Dinner, earned by the Honor Society members through their fundraiser, was held at the Hillside Carriage House Restaurant preceding the formal program.

GIRLS' '87 SOCCER

If you thought last year's soccer team was good, you "hadn't seen nothin'" until this year. The 1987 team had one of Narrowburg's best records ever, ending the season 9-5-1.

The season started off with a win, as we edged Roscoe, 4-3, thanks to a goal each from Kim Nober and Wanda Janowski, and two from Jacki Gabriel. We crushed DV, 7-2, next, where our wings, Wanda and Kim combined for 5 goals. Vanessa, the birthday girl, also scored on a penalty kick. The next two games we prefer to forget — our 1-0 losses to both Eldred and Jeff. We came back, though, beating Liberty, 2-0, thanks to Jacki and Wanda. The Tri-Valley game away ended in a 6-6 tie. The frustration we all felt was shown by Julie Crawford's attack on the goalie and her resulting yellow card. Vanessa had an excellent game, scoring three, and our center half, Linda, also scored. We ended the first half of the season by trouncing Manor, 5-1. Both of our fullbacks took the ball the length of the field, scoring a goal apiece. That's showing 'em, Carolyn and Veronica!!

We started the second half by beating Roscoe again, 3-2, with our inners, Vanessa and Jacki, scoring. When we faced DV next, all we could manage was two penalty kicks, squeaking out of that game thanks to Kim and Vanessa. Could it have been the cold? The middle of our second half was again a disappointment with our repeated losses (1-0) to Eldred and Jeff. We did bounce back, beating Liberty, 2-0, again thanks to Jacki and Wanda. (What is it with you two and Liberty, anyway?)

Rocket's SENIOR Girls

Pre-game PSYCHE!!

Despite the pouring rain (ask JoAnn and Andrea — our very wet s keepers), Jacki slammed home her birthday goal. Maybe Rob's p ence "inspired" her. Sorry about the whipped cream in your hair. Tri-Valley game at home was a disaster despite our 3-1 victory, bec our center full, Veronica, hurt her knee. Even though we didn't have and playing in the pouring rain again, we still pulled off a 3-1 win in last game away at Manor. We had two goals from Vanessa (desp certain redhead), and one from Wanda. Did Danny's presence anything to do with that?

Our post-season sectional play ended abruptly with our 4-0 lo Florida. It's nice to know they beat other teams a lot worse, and it pretty funny to see our own fullback (who shall remain nameless) sco goal for them.

We had a lot of fun this season and made many fond memories we will treasure. We thank all of our fans for all their support, espec Mrs. N., who never missed a game.

Congratulations to Wanda, All-Star WSL Second Team Pick, Carolyn, All-Star WSL First Team Pick.

The team would like to extend a "special" congratulations to "brutal" fullback, WSL Most Valuable Player, Veronica. You gav your all this season and you truly deserve this honor.

"You should see the other guy!!"

Although we had an unlucky year in the win column, ending up with only a win over Pocono Catholic and a tie with Liberty, there were certain high points and memorable experiences this year. We will all remember Barbra Streisand, Chris' handball in the penalty box that didn't get called, fake bus rides on the mini-van, Jon not letting a single penalty shot past him, and Darren's inhuman goal kicks that cleared midfield. Thanks for all your support during the year NHS fans.

Yes, we are bad.

We the Seniors, would like to send an extra special THANKS to Cheryl for all the help she has given us throughout our cheerleading experience. We would also like to say SORRY for the "little things" that caused problems throughout the season. We know after this year we will not receive that same affection you have given us. Thank You So Very Much. WE LOVE YOU!!!!

Guys— We know that you did not have the most successful season this year but better than anyone, we know that you tried your hardest out on the court, and, to us, even though you were winless, in our minds and hearts you are the best. No matter what happened during the season we would have stuck by you — win, lose, or draw. It was a pleasure cheering for you because you NEVER gave up; you just kept on going. We wish the best of luck to the future varsity teams. WE LOVE YOU, GUYS.

GIRLS' VARSITY BASKETBALL

Kneeling L to R: Vanessa Christ, Kim Nober, Linda Kelly, Terri Meyer, and Mr. Scheuren.

The 1987-88 Girls' Varsity Basketball Team began the season with high hopes after being picked in the pre-season to "close the gap" on Eldred. We started off by beating Wallenpaupack and DV Milford at home. We also beat DV Milford away thanks to Cindy's "no pressure" final second foul shots. At the Lady Wildcat Tournament, some of the wind was taken out of our sails by our humiliating loss to Roscoe. We realized we'd have to work harder. We made up for this loss by soundly trouncing DV and having two players, Berni Jungblut and Cindy Rasmussen, placed on the All-Tournament Team. We then went to SCCC and lost to Tri-Valley. We redeemed ourselves by scalping the Chester "Hambletonians", 58-20. The up-again-down-again Indians were at it again! We then began our regular season in DV's freezing gym. We didn't let the cold get to us, beating them, 64-38. Before our next game against the Eldred Yellowjackets, the whole team got together and had a pizza party in the library as we watched the movie, "Hoosiers." This touching film, our presentation of flowers to our moms and Rocket, and the packed gym of screaming, devoted fans inspired us enough to believe we could upset Eldred, but after our hard-fought struggle, we suffered a disappointing 66-56 loss. We had to travel out to Roscoe for our next game, with Coachie substituting for Rocket. Roscoe came out scoring too much, too quickly, and for the second time this season, we suffered a humiliating defeat, 89-60. We then came home for two games, playing TV and LM. We amended our loss to Roscoe with a great "team" effort against TV, as we destroyed them 89-49. But LM came next and we suffered another disheartening defeat, 60-57. Our next game was Jeff, and even though they attempted to mug our point guard and accused us of being "unsportsmanlike", we came with a 88-30 massacre, and the Razz had a new school record of 36 points in game. Our second half began at home with a 98-41 scalping of DV with our trying to cheer us on to 100, and Cindy breaking her own record, scoring 37 points in this game! Our Eldred game was delayed because of snow, so we moved to Roscoe, losing in a heartbreaker at home with Cindy's last second 3-point attempt to tie it up going around the rim and falling out. We still had something to celebrate though, as Cindy scored her 1,000th point and JoAnn was presented with a birthday cake. Our next trip was up to TV, and once again we suffered a disappointing loss, 60-56, that never should have occurred. Needing two more victories to reach sectionals, we traveled to LM, knowing we HAD to win. We started with a flurry in the first quarter, and they were just never able to make up the difference we easily won. (Could it have been the singing in the locker room?) With just one more victory needed, the Seniors played their last home game against Jeff in a team effort (thanks Juniors!) simply overwhelmed the Trojans. Our Saturday game against Eldred is not worth discussing. (We all know why!) In our first section game, we faced LM away. The team would like to extend a special congratulation to Cindy for her outstanding accomplishments. Thanks Razz — you're the MVP of The Seniors would also like to thank Mr. Scheuren for all his time and help (since high school). We appreciate all you've done for us and we'll really miss you. We love you, Rocket!!

"Record-breaking Razz"
