Although losing both games against Manor, Roscoe, and Tri-Valley, the Narrowsburg Girls beat Jeff, Liberty, and tied with Delaware Valley. Surprising themselves, the Girls Soccer team beat Eldred in a 1-0 shutout. They ended the season with Christy Scheuren and Valerie Walters on First team and Becky Starner on Second team.

SENIORS' LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

Kevin Essleman - Sean - The day you see that the Lakers are the best.
Mindy - Another rematch against Billy and Pete. Bill - A party at my house where you don't get in a fight. Pete - I'll give you Samantha Fox. Rocco - Another trip out to Honesdale. John - The ability to play basketball. John C.
- A fifteen foot jump shot. Mike W. - a new car. Erika - Thanks for a great friendship. Fran - The ability to drive. Mr. Kelly - Thanks for all the help with basketball. Tony - The ability not to foul in a basketball game. Pete -
The ability to play hockey. Mr. Walsh - A game that you win. Kim and Megar
- A house so you won't have to have to bother me anymore. Kelly - the ability to throw a party. Mom and Dad - Thanks for all you've done for me.
To the class of 1990 - All the luck in the world with whatever you do.

Tony Vladu - Being of sound mind, I leave my tomato farm and my supernatural physical abilities to the first graders. As I leave and someday pass away (or kick the bucket) I want to thank Sean P., John S., and Rocco for being my friends. I had some fun times here. I remember when Sean pinched my nose and it turned black and blue. I'll get you back.

Francine Reith - Lori - I leave you with permission to talk to Virginia with Matt. Jeanine - I leave you a lemon and a palm tree. Karen G. - I will some day give you a note. Kara - Thanks for always making me smile. Wade and Vinny - I leave you a ride home. Christy - I'm leaving Sarah behind so she can annoy you. Pam - I would like to leave a big taxi sign for the top of your car, but I couldn't find one. Val - Thanks for always telling me the truth (even if I liked my perm.) Mindy and Erika - Let's go to Alamuchy! To all my friends, especially my class, I'm glad it was you I shared the best years of my life with. Liz - You can have the pen I wrote this with. To my family — Thanks for putting up with me and sticking by me when I needed it.

Jane Lybolt - I leave Mr. Kelly my patience to deal with Artie. I leave Mr.
Kilker my apology for not being there next year to help in the office. I leave John my expertise in cooking class. I leave Sean all the laughs and GOOD times. I leave Artie my enthusiasm for school. I leave Mr. Nonnemacher and Mr.
Pole my appreciation for all of their help. I leave the class of 1990 the best wishes and good luck.

Valerie Schalck - Fran - You're my best friend and I cherish that you have always been there. I love ya. Pauline - You are also the best friend I could ask for. I give you the name PEEN forever and you're the best! Christy - No more concussions in soccer and my friendship forever. You're a great friend. Lori - To remember all of your soccer stuff for the whole season and a good attitude in a soccer game. Denise - Another sister like me, and a good attitude about everything. Steve - To stand up to Denise and yell back one time. Sam and Min - A lander's where you don't have to really work, a stool next to mine and my color hair so you won't always be dingy blondes. Ronald - A clean room and to stay that way. Mom and Dad - Thanks for the things you've given me! I love you! Pam - Thanks for the rides to school. I hope your car can stand to live forever. You're a great friend. Jeanine - Japabeen forever. You're a great friend. Kara - My great ability to be a goalie and my prize possession gloves. May you wear them in pride! Kelly - A great student council year and for me to get to a meeting on time. Erika - To shoot at the goal like you want to and make it. Liz - The ability to laugh at something in Business and not just to laugh. Also a night out. Johnny Fro - The Johnny Fro song and a real job. Becky and Valerie - Many more meals at the Chatter Box and a soda with our food. To the Garde family - You're like my second family and all the bumps and bruises I've had. Thanks. To the Soccer team - "We Beat Eldred!" Last but not least, Kevin - I cherish all the good times we've had, thank you for putting up with my parents and our fights. I love you very much sweet heart!!

John Walter - This is my will. To my parents I leave my love. To my sister, I leave all the good times in Chemistry. Val, Mindy and Stacey - All the best times at Lander's during the summer of '89. Jane - the times we fought in Home Ee. Sean - A key chain so you don't lose your keys. Kelly - Control of the class during class meetings. Rocco - My sense of humor. Bill - The ability to put up with your jokes. Pam - A story in which I don't mumble when I tell it. Erika - Our times in 6th period gym last year. Tony - A class in which Mr. Scheuren doesn't yell at you. Fran - A school day in which I do not ask you questions. To my class mates, I hope you have a great future.

Rocco DeGori - First of all to the two most important and greatest people in my life, my parents, I leave my love and my thanks for always being there for me when I needed them the most. To my brother and sister I will absolutely nothing - having a brother like me is more than enough. John - I will my great backing up ability and a new car and a job so he'll stop scrubbing money off of everyone. To the pickiest person I know, Sean, I will 200.00 so he can take a REAL WOMAN to the prom. Thanks for always listening to me. Sean, keep in mind what I always try to get across to you. "TANG HAS NO FACE". Bill - A life time supply of his favorite substance, his own bar at his second home, Lucky Lake and a party you don't lose money at. Kevin - I will a girlfriend to satisfy all his desperate needs (God knows you've got a lot). Milt - I will a couple of more brain cells and the ability to control his wildness. Erika - I will all the Tuesdays may be Wednesdays, hopefully Thursdays and the definitely Friday and Sunday we had. Erika, whatever happens between us, I want you to know I'll always be here for you and that I'll always love you. Don't forget, babe, the best is yet to come. I love you!! Last, but not least, I will all the success and happiness to the class of 1990.

Bill Wyss - To the following people I will: Sean - The day you come to realize that the Giants are not number one. Peter - All the good times and our friendship since first grade. Kevin - The ability to stay on the road and to take another drive's test. Rocco - The ability to stay at a party for the entire time that I am there. Todd - Your famous saying "Tsssh" and my ability to keep my temper under control. Laumontt - My diploma. John - The back seat of your car with you know who. Steve - Your career. Tony - A tomato factory. Pam - Charlie. Val - Being the owner of Lander's. Erika - To grow taller. Mindy - All the good times we've had and thanks for being there. Franny - The ability to beat Rocco in a race. Sis (Lori) - All the good, fun parties at your house. Kris - Watch out for run away cars. Kim - I hope things work out for the best. Flea - A screw driver. Chris W - The time up by the Hillside. Barry - Not doing anything illegal (Yeah, right!). Darren - The Wayne Country Fair. Norman - All the good times at the shop. Chris and Carl - Thanks for being there for us. Julie - All my love and happiness. It's been a good two year relationship. I love you. To my parents I leave a bottle of aspirin for the very many headaches I've caused you. Thanks for being there, I love you both. Finally to the class of '90, all the best years you've had with ME!! No, really, good luck with everything and anything each and every one of you do.

Kelly Weber - To my parents, I leave my sincere gratitude and all my love. To Mom I leave my special thanks. To my sisters: Karen, my clothes and taste. Kathleen, my personality and to Kasey my room and jewelry. Pam - A barbie doll. Mindy - Our second grade song writing ability. Francine - Our family weddings and cream of turkey on waffles. Val - Another great locker partner and another great president like me! Erika - "Puerto Rico," our little fights, "feetie pajamas," the song "Jessie's Girl" (our version} and thanks for caring. Sean - Someone to keep you awake in Math, Saturday Night Live and "What are ya <loin' man?". Rocco - Another great phone buddy and someone to take care of you. Jeanine - Stoked, Thursdays in the back, and "opening up" (understand?). Alf and Becky - An injury free life. Steve and Alf - A "spitten" contest, Fort Delaware Forever! and Sundays. Kara - Bathroom trips and "Happy Days." Phil - Hollywood and D.G. Cathy - A house I'm not allergic to, my ability to start a forest fire while barbequing, F.D. and all my confidence. Cindy - My cheerleading ability, a night at the lake, a pair of socks, and of course ME! Karen - Summers, tofuti, boy scouts vitabath, anything with orange juice, the lake, my love and thanks for being a great friend. James - My thanks for being there, that great car, "Glass Plus", the lake, a standard with a sunroof, and all my love. Even if things change, thanks for being a part of my life. to the class of 1990 - SUCCESS and Happiness!!!

Erika Crocitto - First to my parents who deserve the most - thanks for never giving up on me even though I gave you every reason to and thanks for remaining my "true" best friends when everyone else turned away. I love you. Uncle Mike - The ability to survive reality. Anita - An attitude adjustment and common sense. Dreedle Bug - The ability to work and behave. Andrea G. - Always believe in yourself. Petey - A cheeseburger, my dishwashing ability and McDonalds. Laura and Missy - N.K.O.T.B. Chrissy and Denise - All the childhood memories and a lifetime of friendship. Karen W. - The ability to mind your own business. My bro Jon - Thanks for watching after me. Kelly L. - The ability to smile. Tammy - A guy who loves you as much as you love them. Phil - Debbie G. Kara - Bon Jovi and stay as crazy as me. Brett - A prom date and ninth grade math. Beckster - Our Pete's Pub Talks and Adele. Liz - B.B., limes disease and thanks for being a friend. Amanda W. - Jeanie in Kindergarten. Jane Starner - Late nights at Pete's and thank you for being my second Mom. You are the best! Chris B. - McDonalds, the pond, the Eldred game, Chucky, our fights, your "great" B-Day and our friendship. Joe S. - My biggest apology, hours on the phone, Milli Vinnili, go lay down, the "nasty", all our great times and our relationship that nobody could understand. "I'm gonna miss you." Mr. Olear - A student as great as me and the songs, "I'm the type of guy", and "The right stuff". Mr. O. - An IIR Social class as great as our. Mrs. Ravitz - thanks for always being concerned. My Sweetheart, Karen G. - E.I.P. class, Radio Romance, Mickey D's, and our friendship. I love ya. Pam - Cutting 8th grade social and your 2nd grade sleep over. Val - Bookkeeping class and the little league games. Kevin - The play house, a bloody nose and another White Snake concert. Kelly - 6th grade fights, chars and all our talks, Mindy - Murtle and Gurtrude, the gingerbread man, A&P, our close friendship and all the great times. Fran - Our best friendship in 10th grade, A&P, "Rush", the Eagles, and all our laughs. I love ya. Sean - A stick and the ability to chase me. Thanks for caring! To the rest of the seniors - All the memories and the best of luck. To the soccer team - The Eldred game. Lori - The bathroom, the telephone operator; Franny, Yah, Vivarin, the good and bad times, our best friendship, but most of all my undying friendship. I never stopped being your friend. My best friend Rocco - Thanks for always being there for me. Don't forget all the good times and the ones to come. I love you! I hope the wind doesn't blow the wrong way.

Melinda Creamer - First to my family - Thank you for all the love and happiness you've given me. I could never want anything more, even though it seems I always did! I love you! William - Thank you for being everything I could want in a big brother and a best friend. Steven - Someone as great as me. Kim - Thank you for many years of friendship and all the memories we've made. I also leave you a cushion at the bottom of your stairs, my ability to not go flying out of cars, two bumps on your head, the impact, a fight at Lucky Lake, my taste in clothes and the best of luck. I love you. Julie - All our ski trips, good snow tries and a "sleigh ride." Thank you for being the friend you are and always will be. Lori - An awesome trip to Florida, late night shots in the dark, B-Day burps and thank you for everything. S. McBigmouth - The summer of '89, "Lander Land" walks, a window facility, "Joker", and an "approved of" Dan. Thank you for the true friendship and the many laughs you've given me (snort, snort). Erika - The Italian way, a cookie sheet that won't melt, a tickle and Alamuchy. Thank you for understanding. Pam - Our songs, whiplash, the absolute best of times and all the happiness you deserve. CHA-LEE - A poke in the head and thanks for letting me pick on you. Jeanine - The young ones, garlic and a dog named "Fire". Karen W. - My purse and some one dingier than her. Bill - A dream, an easier way to get into the front seat and thank you for being there. Kevin - Something else to play with and another game of pool. Sean - Our many children and a good marriage. Fran - A lifetime supply of pickles and the A&P. Peter - A thumb wrestle, my incredible strength and a smack in the head. Cindy - What can I leave to someone who has everything I admire? Thanks for being the other "indy." Stacey F. - A good man and the ability to know what to do with him. To the class of 1990 - Thank you for the best years of my life. I wish you all the best of luck!

Sean Prendergast - Will - A gallon of milk, my night of whimpering, a tape I don't have and a girl that doesn't look at me. Tony - The Jeff wall (we may still need it), the saying "come here, come here, go away, go away" and the best of luck. Rocky - The night we beat my father with dough, my managerial position and a magnifying glass. Bill - Your favorite beverage and a plot of land. Pete - (the mad X-mas ball smasher) Engelbert Humperdink and his car. Kevin - My driving ability and a concert. John W. - A farm. Pam - Social class. Fran - A job as a pizza maker. Erika - An instrument sharper than a stick. Mindy - Our fifty kids. Val - The word of the day. Kelly - Our "huge" classes we've had together. Jane - Best of luck in college. Tom S. - My Chevette and my quickness. John S. - My starting position so you don't have to sit on the bench, a job and a car. Becky and Val - A welsh and chemistry class. Todd J. - An orange soda and Uh! Uh! Duh! Kris - A nose jammy. Laumontt - My ability to tell when he's under the influence and 1998 (your projected year of graduation). Alfie - Grapes and more than one hour of work a month. Jon C. - the scar from the Nerf basketball rim. Sean K. - My ability to amuse myself. John G. - Someone to talk music with. Scott - The Dorito smell I blessed the Bonneville with. Steve - Ability of any kind. Joe F. - A life. Todd L. - Our memorable game at Tri-Valley. Aetie - A brain cell to keep the other one company. Wanda - Nothing, because that's what you left me in your senior year. Coach K. - A winning season and someone to keep us within ten or twenty runs. Denis - Self-control and the best of luck. Take care of Mom. Dad - Luck in your road to recovery and my love. Mom - A winning lottery ticket and all my love. Thanks for taking care of me.
